Artist Healthcare Springboard for the Arts supports artists healthcare through several programs Artists Access to Healthcare (AAH) removes financial and system navigation barriers for artists and their families AAH provides artists with vouchers to cover the cost of medical, dental and mental health services In addition to distributing 272 health vouchers to artists, Springboard for the Arts provided 150 free health screenings and 30 flu shots artists in Minnesota The Emergency Relief Fund (ERF) provided small monetary support for 8 artists who have chronic, often life-threatening medical conditions We launched a series of short videos to connect artists with resources, and reached another 3,000+ artists through referrals and education in our role as certified Navigators for MNsure, Minnesotas health insurance marketplace Artist Resources In FY14, Springboard for the Arts increased the capacity of our Resource Center for artists Our computer workstations -- which are outfitted with graphic and slide scanners, Adobe Creative Suite, Microsoft Office, Lynda com software training services, a publications library, and other grant-making and opportunities databases -- had more than 800 uses in FY14 Our self-service copying, printing and fax services were used thousands of times as well We've expanded our legal referral service, connecting over 100 artists with one-on-one attorney referrals in FY14 Community Development Programs Our Community Development Program organizes and empowers artists to build reciprocal relationships with their communities, resulting in vibrant, creative, equitable places We provide catalytic workshops, trainings and project management in partnership with city governments, neighborhood organizations, private institutions and other groups that wish to engage artists in community building, economic development, creative placemaking and innovative problem-solving By addressing opportunities and challenges associated with change locally in Minnesota, we also create customizable modes for communities nationally In FY14, through Irrigate, we trained 115 artists in placemaking and collaboration, 25 of which created a dozen cross-sector projects with local businesses, community groups and non-profits The projects themselves involved dozens more artists and volunteers, and touched hundreds of viewers and participants Through our Artist Organizer program, hundreds more artists were engaged in community engagement activities In our work with other communities and towns, we have provided workshops for about 175 artists We also presented our strategies and learnings to hundreds of professionals through conference presentations Community Supported Art In FY14, the Community Supported Art (CSA) program supported new work from 9 Minnesota artists, putting their art into 50 new households and creating a direct relationship between artist and patron This year we wrote a complete update of our toolkit to help other communities replicate the program and traveled to several communities to assist their efforts There are now over 25 communities nationwide that currently have their own active CSA program, based on our model Since 2011, there have been over 50 CSA programs nationwide Fergus Falls In FY14 our Fergus Falls office provided professional training, a resource center, legal and healthcare services to over 250 artists and consulted with nine organizations, four of which were non-arts organizations Through our Fergus Falls office, 203 artists took workshops,12 artists took advantage of healthcare resources, and 19 artists received one-on-one consultations In addition, our Fergus Falls staff reached an additional 907 artists and community members through presentations and outreach activities Springboard for the Arts' Incubator A Fiscal SponsorshipProgramprovides fiscal sponsorship for arts groups and individual artist projects that do not want (or are not ready) to become tax-exempt nonprofit organizations In FY14, the Incubatorprogramexpanded by 19 new sponsorships, bringing the total number of Incubator participants to 235 We managed over $1.2 million in revenues for the groups in theprogram Professional Development In FY14 Springboard for the Arts' Professional Development programs served over 2,500 individual artists through workshops, one-on-one consulting and participation at leading conferences both locally and nationally Springboard for the Arts presented 148 workshops on business skills for artists, 6 panels on specialized topics, 110 hours of individual consulting, and took part in 14 conferences highlighting our content, artist served and mission General Program Includes program activities that bridge across all programs, as well as our new national program, Creative Exchange In FY14, Springboard for the Arts launched Creative Exchange, an online national network of support for artists and arts organizations through replication toolkits and artist project profiles Replication toolkits include Springboard programs such as Community Supported Art, Artists' Health Fair and Irrigate, as well as partner toolkits around creative use of vacant retail space, artist-engaged community planning, pop-up museums and artist-led community projects In FY14 8 toolkits were hosted, with 20 artist profiles published Creative Exchange serves as a connection hub through hosting online discussion forums and content-sharing

Part IV, Line 1b Why is organization an agent, trustee, custodian or other intermediary for contrib	Springboards Fiscal Sponsorship Program is designed to be an incubator for small arts and cultural organizations founded by individual artists. Many of our clients eventual goals include becoming their own separate tax-exempt organization, though many others just want a way to solicit funds for a single project or event. Small, unincorporated groups founded by individual artists make up the majority of program participants, though many have taken the further step of incorporating as a nonprofit with the state of Minnesota. Organizations must either be based in Minnesota or producing a project in Minnesota. Fiscally sponsored projects must be in compliance with our federal tax-exempt status. Copyright and ownership of intellectual property remain with the artists, and they must indemnify Springboard from all related liability.
