Part VI - Section B, 12-a

As board members change jobs (this is rare as most are retired) they self-report new requirements that could involve a possible conflict of interest. Any time the possibility of a "conflict" issue comes up the individual board member will excuse themselves from the meeting until the issue is resolved.

Part VI - Section B, 15B

Compensation for our two part-time employees is determined by comparing their experience, previous employment, "gifts" they bring to the position along with their salary request. Both current employees consider part of their job as "giving back" to the community in which they reside and "pay back" for the education their children received while attending DCSD schools.

Part VII - Section A, line 15

Rachael Stiener is the DCSD Liaison to the foundation. She provides communication from the district to the foundation about district activities, project, and programs and communication back to DCSD about foundation activities, projects, and programs. The position is non-voting.
