Part III, Line 4	The College was gifted a collection of Audubon art prints, which promote the arts to students and the public.
Part IV, Line 2b	Deposits held in custody represent amounts held as agency accounts for various College clubs and activities.
Part V, Line 4	Endowment funds are invested to produce income, which is used to fund scholarships, pay for salary and general operation expenses, and maintain facilities.
Part X, Line 2	The financial statement effects of a tax position taken or expected to be taken are recognized in the financial statements when it is more likely than not, based on the technical merits, that the position will be sustained upon examination. Interest and penalties, if any, are included in expenses in the statements of activities. As of June 30, 2014 and 2013, the College has analyzed its tax positions and believes that all are more likely than not to be sustained upon examination. The College files information tax returns in the U S and various states. The College is generally no longer subject to U S federal and state income tax examinations by tax authorities for years before 2010.

Part IV Supplemental Information. Provide the information required in Part I, line 2, Part III, column (b), and any other additional information.
Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 2	The College provides scholarships to students enrolled in its programs. Scholarships are awarded based upon student achievements in academics and performing arts. To be considered for scholarship assistance, students must apply for admission and submit academic transcripts of prior education work, test scores (ACT/SAT), and an application for the scholarship program. Some scholarships require additional recommendations or certifications by third parties. Academic progress of scholarship recipients is monitored, and recipients must earn both a minimum amount of college credits and a minimum GPA each semester in order to maintain eligibility. The Seed Project Grant was established to foster and develop an entrepreneurial spirit amongst Covenant College students and to create an opportunity for the students to develop real ideas and put them into action. Business plans are submitted by students for initial review by a committee of Covenant College faculty, staff, alumni, and other friends of the College. Once the business plan earns approval, the plan is presented to an independent panel of judges. The College awards the Seed Project Grant after the independent panel declares a winning idea. Recipients provide receipts to demonstrate that funds were used for legitimate and appropriate business expenses, and the College follows up with recipients at six month intervals following the award until the funds are depleted.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 1
Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 7a	The General Assembly of the PCA elects members to the Board of Trustees and fills vacancies. The Assembly may, at its discretion, increase or decrease the number of Trustees.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11	The Form 990 is prepared by an independent CPA firm and reviewed by the Controller and the CFO. The Audit Committee reviews and approves the Form 990 prior to filing the return. Additionally, the College provides its Form 990 to the Board of Trustees before the returns are filed with the IRS.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	The officers, directors, and committee members with Board delegated powers are required to sign a disclosure form annually. The Executive Committee reviews the signed statements and enforces compliance with the conflict of interest policy. Any board member with a conflict of interest abstains from voting on matters in which there could be a conflict of interest.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	Annually, the Executive Committee reviews the President's salary in comparison with salary studies before submitting the proposed salary to the governing Board of Trustees for approval. This review and approval is documented in the Executive Committee meeting minutes. The President uses comparability data to determine compensation for the College's officers and executives.
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19	The College's governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements are made available upon request.
Form 990, Part XII, line 2c	The College's Board assumes responsibility for oversight of the audit of its financial statements and selection of its independent accountant. This process has not changed since the prior year.
