	Form 990, Part III, Line 4	Carondelet Health Community Benefit Report For the year ended June 30, 2014 Ever since the Sisters of St Joseph of Carondelet began treating patients in a three-story house in downtown Kansas City, the emphasis has been compassion--compassionate care that encompasses the body, mind and spirit, with a special concern for the poor. It comes in the form of a smile and gentle touch behind the technology that reaches the lives of so many patients who grace our doors. It comes also in the form of financial assistance to uninsured patients at both St Joseph and St Mary's Medical Centers, regardless of their employment or credit history. Whether our patients need help applying for Medicaid assistance or just more time to settle their bills with an interest-free, extended-term payment plan, Carondelet Health will be that helping hand. Our mission inspires us to be a united community where we exceed the expectations of every individual with every interaction through unwavering advocacy. Educating the public about the challenges of those lacking health insurance include joining other organizations in Cover the Uninsured Week, along with outreach resource guides in English and Spanish.
