Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 8b	There are no committees that can act on behalf of the board without overall board approval
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11	Upon receipt of the draft Form 990, the organization will forward the Form 990 on to the board members for their comments and suggestions prior to filing with the IRS
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	No director or officer of the Corporation, or committee member, shall be disqualified from holding any position by reason of an interest, but any conflict of interest must be known to the Corporation at the earliest practical time. A director, officer, or committee member of the Corporation shall be considered to have a conflict of interest if such person (a) has an existing or potential financial or other interest which impairs or might reasonably appear to impair such person's independent unbiased judgment in discharge of responsibilities to the corporation, or (b) is aware that an immediate family member or any organization in which such person (or an immediate family member) is an officer, director, employee, member, partner, trustee, or a controlling shareholder has such existing or potential financial interest. A director, except as may otherwise be provided in these Bylaws, does not have a conflict of interest in acting on any resolution fixing the compensation of any director, officer, employee, or agent of the Corporation. No director or committee member shall vote on any matter under consideration in which such person has a conflict of interest, and shall not be counted as a part of the quorum for the vote on the matter. The minutes of such meeting shall reflect that a disclosure of a conflict of interest was made and that the person abstained from voting. Any director or committee member who is uncertain whether there is a conflict of interest in any matter may request the board or committee to determine whether a conflict of interest exists and resolve the question by a majority vote.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15a	The Personnel Committee, made up of independent board members, performs an annual review of the Executive Director's compensation. Comparability data is obtained from the Form 990's of other like organizations. Any salary increases suggested are approved by all of the board members and documented in the board meeting minutes.
