resource management and promotes customer accountability. The agency has more than 200 partnerships designed to provide participants with necessary services. These partnerships include substance abuse treatment providers, Department of Children and Families, Workforce centers, employers, landlords, utility companies, day care centers and many others. Additional, partnerships have been developed with K-State County Extension offices for nutrition education and cooking classes; participants are able to participate in cash asset building programs. Participants receive rent and support assistance while searching for employment or securing other stable income. As participants gain employment and or generate income, they may be required to pay up to 30% of their income towards the rent expense. The overall project design is to provide any and all opportunities to assist the participant to self-reliance through permanent safe and affordable housing and stable income. Participants may be involved in the transitional project for up to 24 months. In some situations the full amount of time may be needed due to disability acceptance and confirmation of social security benefits, waiting periods for low income or subsidized housing and in some cases building a solid work history to secure permanent, stable, decent, wage employment earning. Participants are required to establish and follow goal plans with both short-term (3-5 months) and long-term goals (1-3 years).
