To advance and protect women's legal rights The Center focuses on major policy areas of importance to women and their families including education, employment, family economic security, and health, with special attention given to the concerns of low-income women

2

Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ?

☐ Yes

☒ No

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O

3

Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services?

☐ Yes

☒ No

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O

4

Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported

4a

(Code) (Expenses $ 4,313,000 including grants of $ 6,500) (Revenue $ 41,425)

Health and reproductive rights Helped women and young adults sign up for health insurance by launching Word of Mom, an innovative new website (WordofMom.org) that gives mothers the tools they need to gently nudge their children via Facebook, Twitter or e-mail to learn about and sign up for new affordable insurance options, and by creating user-friendly toolkits that physicians and others can use to explain the health care law to the public Helped women secure no-cost coverage of birth control and other essential preventive health services by creating the user-friendly Cover Her hot line, which provides personalized tools to help women navigate the health insurance system and identifies and addresses systemic barriers to achieving coverage Fought back against the harmful Supreme Court birth control ruling that allows closely held corporations to deny women birth control coverage, by championing federal legislation to overturn the ruling, authoring amicus briefs in cases brought by dozens of employers trying to evade their responsibilities to provide contraceptive coverage, and activating tens of thousands of supporters to press for full contraceptive access Worked with various state partners to block efforts to shut down women's health clinics and otherwise restrict abortion rights

4b

(Code) (Expenses $ 2,046,475 including grants of $) (Revenue $ 44,913)

Family economic security Helped win federal contractor and state minimum wage increases through a Presidential Executive Order and legislation in four states, by analyzing and disseminating new data, producing materials and infographics highlighting the impact of a higher minimum wage on women-who are two-thirds of minimum-wage workers-working with national and state coalitions, testifying before Congress, and educating the public, Administration officials and lawmakers about what is at stake for women and families Helped secure minimum wage and overtime pay for home health workers-90 percent of whom are women-by generating thousands of public comments to support the Department of Labor's proposal to provide these basic labor protections Won nearly $1.5 billion in new investments in early learning in the federal spending bill for FY 2014, and otherwise worked to improve child care and early education through sustained leadership of the Strong Start for Children campaign and its nearly 400 organizational partners, organizing high-profile events, releasing reports, advising policymakers and mobilizing supporters Documented and publicized the persistent overrepresentation of women in the low-wage workforce, its causes, and the public policies that would help to redress it in a widely disseminated report and a series of fact sheets, and engaged in advocacy efforts at the federal and state level designed to secure these policies

4c

(Code) (Expenses $ 2,454,681 including grants of $) (Revenue $ 39,075)

Women's legal rights, education, and employment Won a Presidential Executive Order that strengthens equal pay laws by prohibiting federal contractors from retaliating against employees who discuss their pay and a Presidential directive requiring federal contractors to provide pay data based on sex and race-affecting nearly a quarter of the American workforce-by leading a broad coalition of women's organizations advocating for these actions and garnering significant media coverage on the ways in which pay transparency can reduce the wage gap Won protections for pregnant women by successfully securing Equal Employment Opportunity Commission guidance underscoring employers' obligations to make the same accommodations for pregnant workers that they make for other workers with medical needs, securing the rescission of a Peace Corps policy that terminated pregnant volunteers from service after the fourth month of pregnancy unless supervisors determined they would be able to serve effectively after the birth of a child-a determination not required to be made of new fathers, securing a new policy at a Missouri college permitting all pregnancy-related student absences to be excused, after filing a Title IX complaint with the Department of Education's Office for Civil Rights on behalf of a student, working with state advocates, to secure laws to ensure fair treatment of pregnant workers in three states Secured the opening of over 33,000 positions in Army combat units to women by pressing the Armed Services to promptly implement the Defense Department's directive rescinding the direct ground combat exclusion policy for women, through meetings with Pentagon officials, marshalling Defense Department advisory committee support, and engaging the media and the public in the debate Advanced efforts to combat sexual assault on college campuses and in the military by securing new federal guidance and, in the case of the military, new laws, to improve the policies, procedures, programs and enforcement of existing laws designed to prevent and respond to sexual assault Spearheaded the effort to increase the number of women judges in federal courts by educating the public and policymakers on the importance of women in the judiciary, leading to an increase in the percentage of women judges actively serving on the U.S. Courts of Appeals to almost 35 percent

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	Each year, members of the Board of Directors and key employees are required to complete a form disclosing any interests that may give rise to a conflict of interest. These forms are used to help determine issues on which potential conflicts might arise. In addition, as lawyers, the Co-Presidents are particularly sensitive to potential conflicts of interest and to avoiding even the appearance of a conflict by promptly discussing any potential conflicts with the relevant individuals.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	An outside consultant is hired to analyze compensation of officers and key employees based on the most current national and Washington, DC Area survey data on compensation comparability from the PRM Consulting Management Compensation Report, Not-For-Profit Organizations. The survey includes a wide range of organizations, and it gives results according to budget size that are highly correlated to compensation rates. As part of the analysis, the outside consultant reviews the center's benefits for reasonableness and in comparison to other comparable organizations. The compensation information in the 990's of organizations similar to the Center is also reviewed for comparability. The two Co-Presidents make recommendations to the compensation committee of the Board of Directors on what the compensation of key employees and other high level employees should be, based on the outside consultant's report, for approval by the compensation committee. The compensation committee also determines the compensation of the Co-Presidents, based on the outside consultant's report, and the compensation information from the 990's of similar organizations. All deliberations and decisions of the compensation committee are reflected in contemporaneously drafted and approved minutes of the committee.
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19	The Center's articles of incorporation are available for public examination at the office of the District of Columbia Corporations Division. The Center's audited financial statements are available on its website. The Center makes available its governing documents and conflict of interest policy upon request, but, in accordance with applicable law, reserves the right to withhold this information in its discretion.
