Return Reference	Explanation
SCHEDULE D, PART X, LINE 2	CPHHA was recognized as a public charity generally exempt from federal income taxation under 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code pursuant to a determination letter issued by the IRS on May 30, 1997. CPHHA is entitled to rely on this determination as long as there are no substantial changes in its character, purposes, or methods of operation. Management has concluded that there have been no such changes and therefore CPHHA's status as a public charity exempt from federal income taxation remains in effect. The state in which CPHHA operates also provides general exemption from state income taxation for organizations that are exempt from federal income taxation. However, CPHHA is subject to both federal and state income taxation at corporate tax rates on its unrelated business income. Exemption from other state taxes, such as real and personal property taxes, is separately determined. CPHHA had no unrecognized tax benefits or such amounts were immaterial during the periods presented. For tax periods with respect to which no unrelated business income was recognized, no tax return was required. Tax periods for which no return is filed remain open for examination indefinitely. Although information returns were filed, no tax returns were filed during 2014 and 2013. Years ending on or after June 30, 2011 remain subject to examination by federal and state tax authorities. Current accounting standards define the threshold for recognizing uncertain income tax return positions in the financial statements as "more likely than not" that the position is sustainable, based on its technical merits, and also provide guidance on the measurement, classification and disclosure of tax return positions in the financial statements. Management believes there is no impact on CPHHA's financial statements related to uncertain income tax positions.
