Process for Determining Compensation	Form 990, Part VI, Lines 15a & 15b The organization did not compensate its executives, but, rather, the executives received compensation from a related organization. Accordingly, the organization's parent company determines the executive compensation paid to its executives in the following manner prescribed in the IRS regulations. Executive compensation packages are determined by a committee of the board that is composed entirely of board members who have no conflict of interest. The committee acquires credible comparability market data concerning the compensation packages of similarly situated executives.
