1

Briefly describe the organization's mission

Region Forward is our vision. It's a commitment by COG and its member governments, who together seek to create a more accessible, sustainable, prosperous, and livable National Capital Region. COG's mission is to make Region Forward happen by being a discussion forum, expert resource, issue advocate, and catalyst for action.

2

Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ?

☐ Yes ☒ No

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O.

3

Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services?

☐ Yes ☒ No

4a

(Code) (Expenses $ 36,486,514 including grants of $) (Revenue $ 681,437)

The Metropolitan Washington Council of Governments (COG) is the regional organization of the Washington area's major local governments and their governing officials. The Washington Metropolitan area is comprised of the District of Columbia, the Washington, D.C. suburbs in Maryland and northern Virginia. COG provides a focus for action on issues of regional concern such as comprehensive transportation planning, air and water quality management, environmental monitoring, tracking economic development and population growth and their effects on the region, coordinating public safety programs, and promoting child care and housing for the region. COG is supported by financial contributions from its participating member governments, grants and contracts.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	COG does not require that the officers, board members and key employees disclose their conflicts of interest and those of their family members on an annual basis. The process of making the officers, board members and employees aware of requirements for disclosure is performed when the individual initially joins COG or its Board through the distribution and review of the Organization's By-Laws, policies and procedures. These guidelines require the individual to report matters of conflict before or as they occur. All employees are covered under the policy. Possible conflicts at all levels of staff are reviewed by Human Resources, and as necessary by the General Counsel and Executive Director. COG's conflict of interest concerns includes outside employment which conflicts with COG work, participation in political activities, receipt of gifts or gratuities, and special restrictions for employees who work with elected officials.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Lines 15. The compensation for persons under these positions was established through a benchmark salary survey conducted by the Office of Human Resources Management and the Management Advisory Group. The comparability data include COG-member jurisdictions, nonprofit organizations of similar size and regional councils. Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Lines 15a. COG operates like a government entity where the compensation of its employees is determined by a market study in combination with our member jurisdictions compensation structure to determine COG's pay rates, compensation, and benefits. In addition to an established pay ranges based on COG's annual compensation study, the Executive Director's salary was discussed by the Employee Benefits and Review Committee. Final recommendation of hiring salary was approved by the COG Board of Directors in its November 2012 Board meeting. Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Lines 15b. Salary ranges for all positions including key and officers positions are established based on yearly compensation survey conducted independently by the Management Advisory Group. Final recommendations are made by the Office of Human Resources Management for approval by the CFO and the Executive Director. Salary ranges are approved before July 1st of each year. In addition key and officers' positions are eligible for additional compensation through the performance evaluations conducted in July of each year. Based on performance these positions are eligible to receive merit raises. This performance evaluation for these positions involves approval by the HR Director and the Executive Director.
