Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III ☒

1

Briefly describe the organization's mission

Emory & Henry College is a learning community in pursuit of excellence, engaging a diverse group of well-qualified men and women in educational experiences in which students confront historical and contemporary ideas and issues, and develop the ability to think critically about all areas of human experience. These educational experiences lead to lives of service, productive careers and global citizenship. E&H strives to provide the highest quality education, combining tradition and innovation as it transforms lives and creates positive social change in our region, our nation, and our world.

2

Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ? ☒ Yes ☐ No

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O

3

Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services? ☐ Yes ☒ No

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O

4

Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

4a

(Code) (Expenses $ 28,006,642 including grants of $ 14,967,574) (Revenue $ 25,722,802)

E&H College provided formal instruction and related academic support for nearly 900 full-time equivalent students toward the fulfillment of Bachelor of Science and Bachelor of Art degrees in a variety of fields of study. The college's academic program is shaped by goals to develop the students' intellectual abilities, to strengthen their ability to think critically about ethical decisions and responsible actions, to evoke a commitment to serve others, and to nurture their curiosity through lifelong learning. Student financial aid was provided to most students through a variety of scholarships and grants, supporting the pursuit of degrees. Formal classroom instruction was provided by approximately 70 full-time faculty members, with a student-faculty ration of 10 :1, providing for personalized attention and small class enrollments. To enhance the academic experience for students, services were provided through the library, academic computing, The Powell Resource Center (for academic counseling, career services, personal counseling, skill development, testing resources, tutoring, workshops, and academic accommodations for students with documented disabilities), and the Office of the Academic Dean. Writing labs and quantitative labs were available to students on an ongoing basis. Academic areas of expansion included additional foreign language offerings, the development of an environmental studies research field station and center for science communication, and further preparation for the initiation of the new School of Health Sciences. In addition, construction continued on the new visual and performing arts center where student accomplishments in the arts can be displayed.

4b

(Code) (Expenses $ 5,516,227 including grants of $) (Revenue $ 8,661,578)

Auxiliary services were provided to all students. Nearly 800 students were provided housing and meals. The Mercantile continued to provide books, art and school supplies, and essential grocery and health products to students for their convenience. The Mercantile was remodeled to provide improved access to products for students.

4c

(Code) (Expenses $ 6,048,411 including grants of $) (Revenue $ 269,132)

Various services were provided to students through many programs and offices, including intramural sports, general athletics, the Outdoor Program, spiritual life, The Martin Brock Student Center, Admissions, Financial Aid, the Registrar, the Student Health Center, the Appalachian Center for Community Service, the Bonner Program, the Centralized Student Assistance Office, and the Office of the Dean of Students. Nearly 900 students received some form of financial aid through various scholarships and grants, providing the opportunity to pursue degrees. Campus employment and internships were made available to many students, providing financial resources and valuable work experiences. Many community service opportunities were provided through the Appalachian Center, the Outdoor Program, and the Chaplain's Office. The college partnered with The Rensselaerville Institute by establishing a branch on campus. The 50-year old organization trains community innovators to be "spark plugs" for change. The Outdoor Program expanded its programs with an Outdoor Adventures Program during the summer months. Student orientation programs continued to grow, along with additional intramural programs. The college also acquired a national award-winning competitive equestrian riding program.

Supplemental Information. Provide the information required in Part I, line 2, Part III, column (b), and any other additional information.

Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule I, Part I, Line 2	Part I, Line 2 - E&H College maintains complete records for the grants and scholarships provided to all individuals. Those records indicate the criteria used to award the grants, documentation supporting the grantee's eligibility of the award, and substantiation of the amounts awarded. Documentation is also maintained as to when and how the funds are utilized. Where appropriate, periodic reports are prepared, summarizing the allocation of funds and a reconciliation of the amounts spent for each grant and scholarship. The college employs individuals whose primary responsibilities are to oversee the process of distributing financial grants and scholarships. The number of scholarship and grant recipients for cost of attendance are tracked by the administrative system. The number of faculty and student recipients for research, etc. are estimated based on the type of grants awarded and the number of participants.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part III, Line 2
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b	Part VI, Section B, Line 11b - The completed Form 990 is reviewed by the President, VP for Business & Finance, and members of the Business Affairs/Audit Committee of the Board of Trustees prior to filing the return
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c	Part VI, Section B, Line 12c - All Board members, the President, and the Vice Presidents of the college are required to complete a Conflict of Interest Questionnaire on an annual basis. The Questionnaire is designed to disclose any conflict of interest so that the Board can address the conflict directly and immediately. If, at any time during the fiscal year, a questionable relationship is identified, the Executive Committee of the Board will address it immediately.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15	Part VI, Section B, Line 15 - The Board of Trustees Executive Committee has the responsibility of reviewing the salary and benefits of the President of the college on an annual basis. A performance evaluation is completed, and then reported to the full Board. The Executive Committee develops appropriate recommendations, based on the evaluation, for consideration by the full Board. Comparable data is compiled from peer institutions, and other standard college and university organizations and publications for purposes of determining appropriate levels of salary and benefits. The Human Resources Manager and the President compile comparable information in regard to other officers of the college and the President makes adjustments, as appropriate, and as fiscally responsible budgets will allow.
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19	Part VI, Section C, Line 19 - E&H College makes its governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and copies of the Form 990 available to the public upon request. The Form 990 is also available for public inspection on a public website.
Form 990, Part XI, Line 9	Changes in annuities, loan funds and reclassification of net assets $(133,007)
