Part IIIStatement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III

1

Briefly describe the organization’s mission

First Nations Development Institute works to improve economic conditions for Native Americans through technical assistance and training, advocacy and policy, and direct financial grants

2

Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ?

If “Yes,” describe these new services on Schedule O

3

Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services?

If “Yes,” describe these changes on Schedule O

4

Describe the organization’s program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported

4a

(Code) (Expenses $ 1,137,123 including grants of $ 484,113) (Revenue $)

Native American Foods and Health - First Nations' work in food systems is at the intersection between food systems/food security and economic development First Nations supports tribes and Native communities as they strengthen food systems in their communities, improve health and nutrition and build food security First Nations increases Native control over Native agnculture and food systems by providing financial and technical support, including training materials, to projects that address the agriculture and food sectors in Native communities

4b

(Code) (Expenses $ 1,445,788 including grants of $ 581,400) (Revenue $ 66,899)

Strengthening Native American Nonprofits - Through grant support, technical assistance and training, First Nations provides Native communities with the tools and resources necessary to create new community-based nonprofit organizations and to strengthen the capacity of existing nonprofits For 33 years, First Nations has supported hundreds of model projects that revitalize Native communities while integrating social empowerment and economic strategies An essential component of First Nations nonprofit capacity building strategy is the Leadership Entrepreneural and Apprenticeship Development (LEAD) program that is identifying and training the next generation of Native nonprofit leaders

4c

(Code) (Expenses $ 901,630 including grants of $ 175,000) (Revenue $)

Financial and Investor Education - First Nations Development Institute and its wholly-owned subsidiary, First Nations Oweesta Corporation (a Community Development Financial Institution), work in partnership with Native American tribes and communities throughout the US to assist them in designing and administering financial and investor education programs The projects range from helping individuals and families understand the basics of financial management - opening and maintaining a bank account and using credit wisely - to helping individuals understand financial markets and a variety of financial instruments for borrowing and saving

(Code) (Expenses $ 201,528 including grants of $ 14,995) (Revenue $ 95,682)

Native American Business Development - To create systemic economic change, First Nations works with Native American communities in reclaiming direct control of their assets Working directly with grassroots community partners, individuals and tribes, First Nations supports and provides Native asset-development strategies and models to help communities understand, create and control the way in which Native assets are valued, as well as the decision-making process in deciding whether to monetize those assets

(Code) (Expenses $ 15,831 including grants of $) (Revenue $ 8,567)

Public Education - Through the use of print, electronic and personal contact methods, the public education program develops and implements strategies to increase public awareness about the Organization's programs and projects and the current challenges facing rural and reservation-based Native American communities The program works across the Organization and serves the educational and informational needs of the Organization's constituents including those of tribes and Native non-profit organizations The Public Education program leverages this awareness to increase support for the benefit of Native peoples throughout the nation

(Code) (Expenses $ 27,816 including grants of $) (Revenue $ 60,000)

First Nations Oweesta Corporation - By providing technical assistance and loan capital, First Nations Oweesta seeks to enhance the capacity of tribes, Native communities and individuals to access, control, create, leverage, utilize, and retain financial assets and to provide access to appropriate financial capital for Native development efforts

| Return Reference | Explanation |
|------------------|---|
| Part X, Line 2 | The Organization applies a more-likely-than-not measurement methodology to reflect the financial statement impact of uncertain tax positions. After evaluating the tax positions taken, none are considered to be uncertain, therefore, no amounts have been recognized as of June 30, 2014. If incurred, interest and penalties associated with tax positions are recorded in the period assessed as general and administrative expense. No interest and penalties have been assessed as of June 30, 2014. Tax years that remain subject to examination include 2011 through the current period for the federal returns. |

Part IV

Supplemental Information. Provide the information required in Part I, line 2, Part III, column (b), and any other additional information.

| Return Reference | Explanation |
|------------------|--|
| Part I, Line 2 | The grant-making department manages the solicitation, review and award of grants to applicant organizations. The grant-making department requires documentation of exempt or tribal government status, a budget and narrative of the grantee's proposal and other relevant information. A First Nations committee reviews applications for consistency with First Nations' program objectives and other factors. Terms and conditions of each grant are documented and signed both by First Nations and the grantee. The terms and conditions require programmatic and financial reports from the grantee. The grant-making department monitors compliance with grant terms and conditions, including timely receipt of required reports. Normally grant funds are disbursed in multiple payments. Initial payment follows receipt of signed terms and conditions, and subsequent payments are held until required reports are received, often halfway through and at the end of the grant period. |
