Life Has Changed. Has Your Portfolio?

Life is full of changes. Fashions change, the markets change, even you and your lifestyle change. But has your portfolio? If you haven't completed a portfolio review in the past 12 months, now is the time to do so. You and your financial advisor can discuss what changes have taken place in your life - and outside it - that may impact your portfolio and then decide if any changes are needed. Even if no action is necessary, you'll have the satisfaction of knowing your portfolio is still on track.

* Your approved credit is not a commitment to loan funds. It is based on the value of your investment account which could change daily. The amount you may be eligible to borrow may differ from your approved credit. Borrowing against securities has its risks and is not appropriate for everyone. If the value of your collateral declines, you may be required to deposit cash or additional securities, or the securities in your account may be sold to meet the margin call. A minimum account value is required if you have loan features on your account. Your interest will begin to accrue from the date of the loan and be charged to the account. Your interest rate will vary depending on the assets under care of your Edward Jones Relationship Pricing Group. The Earnings Engine: Power for Your Portfolio?

When investing, how can you tell if your portfolio is engineered for the long haul? We recommend sticking with quality investments, diversifying them and revisiting them regularly to stay on track. With the stock market up and long-term interest rates probably moving higher, what's been working in your portfolio may not continue to work as well as it has been. We believe you should prepare for volatility and keep looking for timely opportunities. A good opportunity we've identified today is in stocks with strong earnings growth potential that can do well in a rising interest rate environment

What Is Earnings Growth?

Earnings growth describes how much a company's profits grow or are projected to grow over time. Earnings growth is typically measured by EPS, or earnings per share, which shows the amount of profits allocated to each share of stock. EPS growth can help drive stock prices higher over time because investors will pay a higher price for growing companies.

Earnings growth varies by sector and company, and can be driven by numerous factors, such as increased consumption and demand from new customers. However, we believe companies that truly differentiate themselves from their competition - through product innovation, new technologies and global expansion - are better positioned for growth potential.

Stock Ideas

To help you find today's opportunities, Edward Jones has created a list of Buy-rated stocks with EPS growth potential of 8% or more. We believe these stocks have differentiated themselves from their competitors, whether they are large, well-known companies or smaller, less familiar companies. The list also includes stocks across many sectors.

Not only can earnings growth result in higher stock prices over time, but it also can support a rising dividend. We expect most of the companies on this list to raise their dividends regularly. Companies that consistently raise their dividends have historically generated strong investment returns for investors, but past performance doesn't guarantee future results.

To view this list and learn more about stocks with strong earnings growth potential, read our strategy report "The Earnings Engine: Power for Your Portfolio?" at www.edwardjones.com/earningsengine.

About Your Account

Account Information — Your Account Agreement contains the complete conditions that govern your account. Please contact your financial advisor if you have any changes to your financial situation, contact information or investment objectives.

Account Safety — Please review your statement carefully. If you believe there are errors on your account, you must notify us promptly of your concerns. You may either contact our Client Relations department or your financial advisor. You should re-confirm any oral communication by sending us a letter within 30 days to protect your rights, including your rights under the Securities Investor Protection Act (SIPA).

Errors or Questions about your Electronic Transfers — Contact Client Relations at (800) 441-2357.

Complaints about Your Account — If you have a complaint please send a letter to Edward Jones, Attn: Complaints Dept., 1245 JJ Kelley Memorial Dr., St. Louis, MO 63131.

Withholding on Distributions or Withdrawals — Federal law requires Edward Jones to withhold income tax on distribution(s) from your retirement accounts and other plans unless you elect not to have withholding apply. You may elect a percentage to be withheld from your distribution or not to have the withholding apply by signing and dating the appropriate form and returning it to the address specified on the form. Your election will remain in effect until you change or revoke it by returning another signed and dated form. If you do not return the form by the date your distributions are scheduled to begin, Federal income tax will be withheld. If you do not have enough income tax withheld from your distributions, you may need to pay estimated tax. You may incur penalties if the amounts withheld and your estimated tax payments are not equal to the tax you owe. State withholding, if applicable, is subject to the state's withholding requirements.

Fees and Charges — The "Fees and charges" amount shown in your Value Summary includes all activity fees, except dividend reinvestment fees.

Fair Market Value for Individual Retirement Accounts — Your fair market value as of December 31st will be reported to the IRS as required by law.

Rights to Your Money Market Fund, Bank Deposit and Free Credit Balances — Your free credit balances are payable on demand. You may require us to liquidate your bank deposit or money market fund balance. We will then disburse the proceeds to you or place them in your securities account. Your instructions must be made during normal business hours and are subject to terms and conditions of the Account Agreement.

Important disclosures and other information relating to our account(s) are available at www.edwardjones.com/disclosures.
