Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part V, Line 4	The endowment is used to provide Scholarships to the students of the University
Schedule D, Part X, Line 2	Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America prescribes recognition thresholds and measurement attributes for the financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. Tax benefits are recognized only if a tax position is more-likely-than-not sustained in a tax examination, with a tax examination being presumed to occur. The amount recognized is the largest amount of tax benefit that is greater than 50% likely of being realized on examination. For tax positions not meeting the more-likely-than-not test, no tax benefit is recorded. Management has concluded that they are unaware of any tax benefits or liabilities to be recognized at June 30, 2014 or 2013, respectively. The University recognizes interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits in interest and income tax expense, respectively. The University has no amounts accrued for interest or penalties for the tax year ended June 30, 2014 or 2013, respectively. The University is no longer subject to examination by taxing authorities for years before 2010. The University does not expect the total amount of unrecognized tax benefits to significantly change in the next 12 months.
