of the Foundation shall be personally liable for monetary damages for breach of any duty as a director. No amendment or repeal of this article, nor the adoption of any other amendment to these First Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation inconsistent with this article, shall eliminate or reduce the protection granted herein with respect to any matter that occurred prior to such amendment, repeal, or adoption.

9. In the event of the termination, dissolution or winding up of the affairs of the Foundation in any manner or for any reason whatsoever, the directors shall, after paying or making provision for payment of all liabilities of the Foundation, distribute all of the remaining assets and property of the Foundation to the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill (the "University") or a University-approved associated entity, unless otherwise designated by the donor of the assets, provided that the University, the University-approved associated entity and/or the designee of the donor of an asset qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code. In the event that the University, the University-approved associated entity and/or the designee of the donor of an asset do not qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, the directors shall dispose of all of the assets of the Foundation exclusively for the purposes of the Foundation in such manner, or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, educational, scientific or literary purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or to federal, state, or local governments to be used exclusively for public purposes. Any such assets not so disposed, shall be disposed of by the Superior Court in which the principal office of the Foundation is then located to one or more organizations exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code or to federal, state, or local governments to be used exclusively for public purposes.

10. Except as otherwise provided herein, these First Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation may be amended or repealed and new or amended articles of incorporation may be adopted by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the directors then holding office at any regular or special meeting of the board of directors at which a quorum is present, provided that at least ten days' written notice is given of intention to alter, amend, repeal or adopt new articles of incorporation at such meeting.
