Manage housing for low to moderate income families.

The primary purpose of CHAD (Columbia Housing Authority Developments, Inc.) is to supplement the development of quality affordable housing for CHA (Columbia Housing Authority of the City of Columbia, SC). CHA's primary goal is to provide quality, affordable housing to low-income residents of Richland County by effectively managing the public housing inventory and increase the number of affordable housing units. CHA also strives to improve the quality of the life of these residents and other low income residents of Richland County. This may include career development and job training programs, family self sufficiency efforts, as well as economic development, such as our commercial center at the Celia Saxon Homes. CHAD is frequently the instrument used to create these programs outside the traditional Department of Housing and Urban Development funding. CHAD has added to community to provide single family dwelling housing through the purchase of Capital Heights and Bayberry Mews two fiscal years ago.
