Part X, Line 2:

Explanation: The School is recognized as an organization exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (the "Code"), whereby only unrelated business income, as defined by Section 512(a)(1) of the Code, is subject to federal income tax. The School has no unrelated business income for the year ended June 30, 2014. Accordingly, no provision for income taxes has been recorded. The School has evaluated all tax positions taken on its tax returns and believes that all positions are more likely-than-not to be sustained upon examination. Generally, the School's tax returns are subject to examination by the U.S. Federal, state and local authorities for three years after the returns are filed. Currently, the 2010, 2011, 2012 and 2013 tax years are open and parents are able to pay toward tuition.

The financial aid committee reviews the information provided by the parents and SSS. Each application is discussed and initial financial aid amounts are determined. The committee gives priority to funding high school students financial aid needs followed by middle school students financial aid needs and finally lower school students financial aid needs. The committee reviews the initial financial aid amounts and makes modifications based on total funding available and to ensure financial aid amounts are consistent for students with similar financial situation within the same school levels. (lower school, middle school, and high school). The committee also ensures that all AAAS (Atlanta Area Association of Independent Schools) guidelines are followed.

All applicants are notified of the decision of the financial aid committee. All applicants that are awarded financial aid are given two weeks to accept or reject the offer. Upon acceptance by the applicant, the financial aid award is communicated to the school accountant who ensures the financial aid is applied to the applicants account.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11:

Explanation: After a draft version of the Form 990 has been prepared, the draft is sent to the finance committee members and Board of Trustees.

Members and directors discuss any issues or concerns that they may have with the draft Form 990. Once approved, the preparer is notified and authorized to prepare the final version of the form 990. The final Form 990 is signed by an officer and filed with the IRS.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c:

Explanation: Upon hiring a key employee or election of a person as a member of the Board of Trustees, the Organization's conflict of interest policy must be signed acknowledging that no conflicts of interest exist. Annually, key employees and board members reaffirm that no conflicts of interest exist by signing an update form. The Organization acts appropriately when a conflict is identified by any member of the Organization.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15:

Explanation: Compensation for the headmaster is recommended by the executive committee and approved by the Board members annually.

Compensation for other key employees other than the headmaster is determined by the headmaster. Compensation of key employees at other organizations of similar size and activities is used in determining the annual compensation. Performance of these key employees is also considered in determining annual compensation.
