28) Our county volunteers participated in Ag Literacy Day. This annual event allowed the agriculture industry representatives to read a children's book about the Florida agriculture industry to students in kindergarten thru fifth grade. This year's book was titled Florida Farms at School. We were able to read to aprox. 800 students.

29) Our county promotes the betterment of agriculture by providing scholarships to three high school students who pursue a career in this field.

30) We partnered with several agencies during this year's Tri-County Ag Ventures. The program provides a place for urban residents and children to learn about local agriculture through hands on activities.
