Part III, Line 1a	The Museum of Art acquires art for its collection through purchase or gift. As permitted by SFAS 116 (ASC 958), accounting for contributions received and contributions made, the Museum does not include its collection items as assets in the consolidated statement of financial position. Accordingly, no value has been assigned to the Museum's art collection. The University's policy requires any proceeds from sales of collection items to be used to acquire other items for the collection. Proceeds from the sale of collection items and expenditures for collection items purchased are reflected in the consolidated statement of activities separately from revenues and expenses.
Part III, Line 4	Nova Southeastern University operates the Museum of Art/Fort Lauderdale. In service to the public, the mission of the Museum is to actively engage diverse audiences in the appreciation of works of art through innovative exhibitions, education programs, publications, and collection activities. This mission is consistent with the University's exempt educational purpose.
Part V, Line 4	The University's endowment consists of approximately 280 individual endowments established for a variety of purposes. The University considers the following factors in making a determination to appropriate or accumulate donor restricted funds: a) the purposes of the institution; b) the intent of the donors of the endowment fund; c) the terms of the applicable instrument; d) the long and short term needs of the institution; e) general economic conditions; f) possible effects of inflation or deflation; g) the other resources of the institution; h) perpetuation of the endowment.
Part X, Line 2	Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes. The University follows the guidance contained in ASC 740, Income Taxes. ASC 740 addresses the accounting for uncertainty in income taxes recognized in an entity's financial statements and prescribes a threshold of more-likely-than-not for recognition and de-recognition of tax positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. There were no uncertain tax positions recorded in the consolidated financial statements for fiscal years 2014 and 2013.
