The funded organizations provide reports and examples documenting the extent to which they achieve their goals. For the grants awarded in this fiscal year, grants were paid in 2 installments. The first installment, comprising 85% of the grant, was paid after the execution of a grant agreement, which specifies all terms and conditions regarding project performance and future payments. The remaining installment (15% of the grant) was paid in FY 14/15 after receiving a final detailed report describing the results, a budget-to-actual expense accounting, and a complete review by CCAF staff. Additionally, CCAF maintains contact with the grantees throughout the funding period through regular emails, phone calls, and, on occasion, on-site visits to the grantees and their projects.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	CCAF has a conflict of interest policy which applies to all employees and is incorporated into CCAF's employee handbook. The policy requires that all employees avoid financial interest, decisions, and other activity that could be in conflict with the policy. The policy communicates the expectation for employees to abide by the spirit as well as the letter of the policy. The Conflict of Interest Policy is also supported by the active enforcement of other policies, such as CCAF's Whistleblower Protection Policy, which encourages the reporting of potential illegal and unethical conduct, including conflicts of interest. The Board of Directors discusses conflicts of interest annually. With respect to CCAF's grant program, if there is a conflict of interest or perceived conflict of interest with a grant application, the director recuses himself or herself from the review of the application as well as the vote for approval of the grant application.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	CCAF uses an independent compensation firm to set the compensation for all employees including all management. The independent compensation firm reviews current job descriptions and compares them to similar positions in similar California based organizations to determine a market-based compensation range. The compensation benchmarking is performed every 3 to 5 years for the entire organization, and more frequently for selected positions as necessary. In 2011, CCAF's Board of Directors hired a separate compensation consultant to review the total compensation of CCAF's four executive managers and to compare the compensation to appropriate benchmarks. Based on the consultant's report, the Board of Directors approved new compensation levels in 2011 for CCAF's four executive managers.
