Part III 4 During FY 2013, the Southern Region defined two activities as Programs. 4b The Region sends three representatives to meetings of a national organization and an international organization with similar objectives and activities. These representatives advocate for the members of the Southern Region. They communicate information learned at the meetings to the members of the Southern Region. 4c Each year the Region awards grants used to pay the travel expenses of randomly select dancers living in the Southern Region and qualified to compete in the World Irish Dancing Championships. There have been activities of the Southern Region for many years. In FY 2013 they were redefined as Program Services.

Part III 4e The Southern Region paid $875 in total registration fees for members attending a continuing education program organized by the Irish Dance Teachers Association of North America, Inc. Members paid their own travel expenses.
