2013 990EZ Part 1 line 16: expenses include $173 in bank charge fees for credit card use and $262 for bank wire transfer fees.

2013 990EZ Part III: PROGRAM: Gulu Secondary School Project supports 18 students' tuition, room and board, supplies, transportation, in-school and visiting mentors. Children living in rural communities of northern Uganda are our focus. We commit to a multi-faceted support system to meet the needs of each student who has academic strength and is in financial need. We are proud of our five young men who scored in Division One of the Uganda Certificate of Education exam [top 7% of the 2013 national exam participants] and are now in advanced level studies. They aspire to be doctors, engineers and minister. We are equally proud of our three young women who scored in Division Two [top 25% of the 2013 national exam participants] who are now in vocational nursing and medical lab programs.

Ten students are in their first four years of secondary school. They have shown a willingness for hard work and discipline.

We are proud of their efforts.

The Children UP Board requires that there be money in our funds to support a student through six years of secondary schooling before we welcome a new participant. Our goal is to assure that the funds for continuing education are available to students who show responsible efforts each school year.

Children UP is assisting one student in advanced university studies.

The primary impact of Children UP is directed to Uganda, yet our fund raising has an educational impact in the United States. Through e-newsletters, presentations, social media and personal communication, we have raised an awareness of Ugandan history, culture, economic and political situation. Since we have an ongoing relationship with our students, their families and our mentors, we share information that brings together families across the globe. This connection has been meaningful to both student and donor.

2013 990EZ Part IV: All directors and board members can be reached through the office of Children UP at 481 Alma, Elmhurst IL 60126.

All directors and board members donate their time, skills and resources to Children UP. There are no salaries or office expenses within the U.S.

2013 990EZ Part V part 42b: Children UP handles expenses via bank wire transfers to Centenary Rural Development Bank in Gulu.

2013 990EZ Part V part 42c: ChildrenUP shares office space in Gulu, Uganda with a local charity, Better World, who is our implementing partner in Uganda.
