The purpose of the Magnolia Rotary Club is to promote goodwill and better relations among people on local, national and international levels. Additionally, the Magnolia Rotary Club helps the disadvantaged while promoting and encouraging youth. Every week, the Magnolia Rotary Club has two high school student guests. These guests keep the club informed about what goes on at the local high school. In turn, the club gives them experience in being around a large group of adults as well as giving them a free meal. Every week, the Club has a guest speaker. These speakers help educate the club about cultural, hospice, governmental, and community development activities. The speakers, in turn, gain exposure about their various endeavors. During the year, many members of the club have voluntarily donated to a club scholarship for helping deserving college students.
