Part X Line 2 Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require that uncertain tax positions be evaluated and the potential impact of an unfavorable outcome of a tax authority's assessment of such uncertain tax position be reflected in the financial statements. From time to time, management must assess the need to accrue or disclose a possible loss contingency for proposed adjustments from various federal and state tax authorities who may audit the organization in the normal course of business. The Association has evaluated its tax reporting and has not reflected any contingent liability for any such potential assessment.
