For nearly 90 years, Neighborhood Services Organization, Inc. and its predecessors have served those most in need -- Oklahoma City's impoverished, homeless and at-risk youths, adults and families. Throughout its history, NSO has focused on identifying the most pressing needs of our community's needy and implementing programs that address those needs effectively. Several programs, such as OKC Food Bank and others, were founded and nurtured by NSO before becoming independent service organizations. While we continue to identify current and future needs, our current programs include services in the areas of housing, monetary assistance and health services.
