Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 1a	Travel for companions - The organization reimburses eligible employees and board members certain reasonable travel expenses associated with spousal travel where the spouse's presence is important to the event. These events may include, for example, board meetings, retreats, and award ceremonies approved by the Baylor Health Care System ("BHCS") CEO. All spousal travel reimbursements are treated as taxable compensation. One person listed in the Form 990, Part VII, Section A, received this benefit during the tax year
Part I, Line 1a	Tax indemnification and gross up payments-The organization provides tax indemnification where an authorized member of management determines there is justification to reimburse an individual for the tax impact on certain taxable, non-cash benefits provided to them. All tax indemnification payments provided are treated as taxable compensation. One person listed in the Form 990, Part VII, Section A, received this benefit during the tax year
Part I, Line 4b	In order to recruit and retain key talent, BHCS offers a supplemental non qualified retirement plan to eligible employees. The plan provides an annual benefit (based on a percentage of compensation) to the employee that is paid to the employee on a future date upon vesting in the plan. The following individual participated in and/or received payments (noted in parenthesis) from BHCS' supplemental non qualified retirement plan during the tax year Cindy Schamp. Also, select certain officers, as designated by BHCS's governing body, are eligible to participate in a Long Term Incentive Plan that is designed to recognize the key senior leaders value and contribution to BHCS as well as align their compensation to the long term strategy of BHCS. Performance targets are based upon a percentage of the participant's base salary and are developed by independent third party expert(s) using market competitive data withing the guides of reasonableness. The plan is based on BHCS's three-year performance against its peers, determined based on peer rankings or percentile rankings in quality, patient satisfaction and financial performance. At the end of three years, awards are determined by BHCS's governing body for participants. Payouts are partially made in cash and the remainder vests over an additional two year period. The following individual participated in and/or received payments (noted in parenthesis) from this plan during the tax year Cindy Schamp ($129,717)
Part I, Line 7	The organization has adopted and implemented Baylor Health Care Systems' ("BHCS"), the organization's sole member, Performance Award Program to provide a market competitive total cash compensation incentive program that is designed to attract and retain key leaders and establish greater individual accountability and alignment to business performance. Payout targets are based upon a percentage of base pay and are developed by independent third party expert(s) using comparable market competitive data within the bounds of reasonableness and that are reviewed and approved by BHCS's governing body. Payout levels are based upon a combination of system, entity, and individual performance using various metrics related to quality, patient satisfaction, employee retention, and financial stewardship. BHCS's governing body may approve modifications to annual incentive awards provided under the program consistent with market comparability data
Form 990, Schedule J, Part III	Supplemental Information Governing Body Compensation The members of the governing body serve on a voluntary basis and receive no cash compensation from the organization for these duties as a member of the governing body. Some, but not all, members have received modest benefits incident to their service on the board and/or multiple board committees of a related organization. These benefits include reimbursement for certain reasonable expenses paid on behalf of the member's spouse while accompanying the member on business travel on behalf of the related organization and/or a wellness physical. All such benefits are treated as taxable compensation to the extent required by law and are reported in the Form 990 where applicable. One member received compensation from a related organization in their capacity as President of the related organization
