Form 990-EZ, PART III, Line 28 - Statement of Program Accomplishments

The Wellington Elementary PTA provides for the enrichment of the learning and educational experience of all the students attending the elementary school. Resources are used to address additional classroom needs as well as sponsoring a wide range of activities from child safety programs, cultural programs, science and technology programs, and Field Day. The organization also serves as a main source of communication between the school and parents, and strives to assist in increasing the level of parental involvement and awareness between home and school.
