Return Reference	Explanation
Part III, Line 4	Art and historical treasures have been received by the College as gifts from donors. They are displayed throughout the campus for the benefit of our students and constituents. Because we offer courses in both Church history and Biblical archeology, the historical Bibles and archeological artifacts serve to advance the academic programs of the College.
Part IV, Line 2b	Criswell Colleges holds funds on behalf of international students to cover unexpected expenses such as unplanned trips back to their home countries.
Part V, Line 4	The endowment fund is used for general operating expenses and scholarships.
Part X, Line 2	The financial statement effects of a tax position taken or expected to be taken are recognized in the financial statements when it is more likely than not, based on the technical merits, that the position will be sustained upon examination. Interest and penalties, if any, are included in general and administrative expenses in the statements of activities. As of June 30, 2014, the College had no uncertain tax positions that qualify for recognition or disclosure in the financial statements. The College's Federal Exempt Organization Business Income Tax Return Form 990 for the years ended June 30, 2013, 2012, and 2011 are subject to examination by the IRS, generally for three years after they were filed.
