Return Reference	Explanation
Part X FIN48 Footnote	CONCERN is exempt from taxation under Section 501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code and Section 23701f of the California Revenue and Taxation Code as a social welfare organization and is generally not subject to federal or state income taxes. However, CONCERN is subject to income taxes on any net income that is derived from trade or business, regularly carried on, and not in furtherance of the purposes for which it was granted exemption. No income tax provision has been recorded as the net income, if any, from any unrelated trade or business, in the opinion of management, is not material to the financial statements taken as a whole.

Return Reference	Explanation
Grantmaker's Description of How Grants are Used	El Camino Hospital requires detailed metrics and expense budgets for all funding partners as part of the proposal process. Both 6 month and annual targets are required for all metrics. Partners submit quarterly volume reports and detailed interim and final reports. The interim and final reports show progress on metrics as well as budget information on how funds have been used. Partners must request permission to use funds in any way that varies from the approved contract. Site visits provide additional monitoring of fund utilization. Reports are reviewed by the Community Benefit department staff. Results are shared with the Community Benefit Advisory Council and with the Board through bi-annual presentations.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Form 990, Part VI, Line 6 Explanation of Classes of Members or Shareholder
Form 990, Part VI, Line 11b Form 990 Review Process	Upon completion of Form 990, the form is presented to the board at its board meeting by the CFO for review and discussion before it is filed by the IRS and made available to the public
Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c Explanation of Monitoring and Enforcement of Conflicts	The Compliance Dept distributes Conflicts of interest forms on an annual basis to managers, executives, and the Board along with Medical Directors, key consultants, and contractors who operate outsourced departments. The Compliance Officer regularly monitors the written disclosures and verbal reporting as a reference and assesses if an interest in a transaction could be deemed as a conflict to the organization. As indicated in the policy the procedure to deal with the reported conflict is reviewed based on the individual reporting. If the individual is not a Board member the proposed transaction is reviewed with key managers in charge of the transaction along with the CEO and Compliance officer. If a potential conflict of interest exists appropriate steps to mitigate or eliminate the effect of the potential conflict of interest will be taken. If the individual is a Board Member the matter is reported to the CEO and referred automatically to the Hospital's AdHoc Interest Committee for determination as to whether a potential conflict of interest exists. A Board member may recuse themselves from the matter without further action and the Board shall take such action that shall be necessary to mitigate any potential conflict of interest as described. At all times the Compliance department will also utilize legal counsel to help evaluate potential conflicts and provide an assessment to the organization.
Form 990, Part VI, Line 15b Compensation Review and Approval Process for Officers and Key Employees	El Camino Hospital (the "Hospital" - an IRS 501(c) (3) organization) is the sole member of CONCERN. As the Hospital is the "parent" of CONCERN, CONCERN adopts and follows a number of policies and processes of the Hospital. As such, the processes for determining compensation of CONCERN's CEO and Other Key Employees, is overseen by the Compensation Committee of the Hospital. That process is described below. The Compensation Committee (the "Committee") is the Board of Directors of the Hospital and is made up of the Board of Directors, and one outside, independent member selected by the Board. The outside member selected by the Board is involved in the reviewing and recommending of compensation, but does not have a vote in the decisions/actions by the Board. All members of the committee are independent directors with no conflict of interest regarding compensation and benefits for the Executives whose compensation is reviewed, recommended, and approved by the Board. The CEO is not a member of the Committee, but may serve as staff for the Committee as long as the CEO is excused when the Committee is reviewing the CEO's compensation. The Committee has the following responsibilities --Develop and maintain a policy on executive compensation--Develop and maintain an executive compensation and benefit program consistent with the policy approved by the Board--Determine compensation, benefits, perquisites, and contract terms for the CEO --Determine any salary increase and any performance compensation incentive based on the Committee's evaluation of the CEO's performance--Review, change, and approve the CEO's salary and performance incentive recommendations for the executive staff whose compensation is subject to review by the Committee --Oversee and maintain administrative control of the executive performance plan(s) by setting goals for the CEO, and approving the goals recommended by the CEO for the executive staff --Conduct annual appraisal of the CEO's performance--Periodically evaluate the executive compensation program, including the charter, policies, and philosophy on which it is based, to assess its effectiveness in meeting the needs for recruiting, retaining, and motivating qualified leaders --Periodically review the total value, cost, and reasonableness of severance and retirement benefits for CEO and executive staff--Reviews and approves all business travel and entertain expenses of the CEO. Process The Committee follows a process that meets all applicable legal requirements and which promotes effective governance of executive compensation, consistent with the executive compensation policy --Prepare minutes for each meeting to record the Committee's decisions and the process followed in reaching those decisions and maintain records that address conflicts of interest and appropriate comparability data --Select, engage, and supervise any consultant hired by the Hospital to advise the Committee on executive compensation issues --Periodically evaluate the appropriateness of the Compensation Committee Charter and the effectiveness of the process the Committee uses in governing executive compensation and report this evaluation to the Board of Directors --Provide the Board of Directors with regular reports of the Committee's actions
Form 990, Part VI, Line 19 Other Organization Documents Publicly Available	The organization makes available the Form 990, governing documents, conflict of interest, and audited financial statements upon request by having them available during normal business hours for review, or if requested will be mailed to the requestor.
