Part V, Line 4	To support the programs and services of Aurora Mental Health Center
Part X, Line 2	The Center follows guidance related to the Uncertainty in Income Taxes accounting standard which requires the Center to determine whether a tax position (and the related tax benefit) is more likely than not to be sustained upon examination by the applicable taxing authority, based solely on the technical merits of the position. The Center believes it has appropriate support for any tax positions taken, and as such, does not have any uncertain tax positions that are significant to the financial statements. If incurred, interest and penalties associated with uncertain tax positions would be recorded in the period assessed. No interest or penalties have been assessed in 2014 and 2013. The Center's tax returns for the previous three years are subject to examination by the IRS, generally for three years after initial filing.
