Return Reference	Explanation
Part V, Line 4	The Foundation's endowment consists of various individual funds established for a variety of purposes
Part X, Line 2	Management is required to evaluate tax positions taken by the Foundation and to recognize a tax liability if the Foundation has taken an uncertain position that probably would not be sustained upon examination by taxing authorities. The Foundation believes that it has appropriate support for any tax positions taken and that none would require recognition of a liability or disclosure in the financial statements. The Foundation is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions, however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress. The Foundations federal Return of Organization Exempt From Income Tax (Form 990) for the previous years ended June 30, 2011 through 2013 are subject to examination by the IRS, generally for three years after they were filed.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	The conflict of interest policy permits board members to enter into transactions with the Foundation as long as the member's interest in the transaction is disclosed to the Board, provided that the transactions are authorized by the Board in good faith and fair to the Foundation. Board members must annually complete and sign a disclosure form describing circumstances creating a potential conflict of interest with the Foundation. The forms are reviewed by the executive committee.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	The Foundation has adopted a compensation policy establishing a compensation committee that reviews the performance and compensation of the chief executive officer. The committee meets annually to evaluate performance and compensation relative to benchmarks enumerated by a compensation survey of comparable nonprofits and for-profit organizations, as appropriate. Documentation of the deliberation and decision is maintained in the organizations books and records. The board empowers the CEO to set compensation levels for other officers and key employees of the Foundation. Compensation levels of the officers and key employees are comparable to other similar nonprofit organizations as measured by local nonprofit agencies. Documentation is maintained in the organizations books and records.
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19	Governing documents and policy statements are made available to the public upon request. The Form 990 is available upon request and is also available on the Foundations website.
Form 990, Part VII	John Faught, Esq. was hired by the Foundation at 11/1/13 to provide advocacy, public affairs, government relations and fundraising while the Foundation was without a President/CEO. When he was hired, John resigned from his position on the board.
Form 990, Part XII, Line 2c	The process did not change during the tax year. The Foundation has an audit committee that assumes responsibility for oversight of the audit of the financial statements and selection of an independent accountant.
