Return Reference	Explanation
Part V, Line 4	In accordance with the donor instructions to fund certain resident support services positions from the services endowment, the spending policy calculates the amount of money annually necessary to fund one half of the cost of the positions required by the original grant. AHA is required to match the amount spent from the services endowment to ensure full funding for these positions. AHA has used a portion of the grant from the CCF to fund the match. Earnings to date plus the match have been sufficient to fully fund the positions. The Development Working Capital endowment restricts the funds to be used only for predevelopment costs associated with housing programs being newly developed or significantly renovated. Funds are advanced as temporary project financing, and are returned to the working capital fund when a project is permanently financed. Earnings on the working capital endowment are to be used only for predevelopment costs.
Part X, Line 2	Archdiocesan Housing Authority dba CHS and its wholly owned subsidiaries are exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. CHS is not a private foundation as defined in Internal Revenue Code Section 509(a). CHS's tax filings are subject to examination by various taxing authorities. CHS's open examination periods are 2010 and thereafter. CHS has evaluated its tax positions and concluded that it has taken no uncertain tax positions that would require adjustment to the financial statements. In addition, CHS is not aware of any matters that would cause the loss of its tax-exempt status.
