| Part I, Line 2   | Agros carries out program activities in Central America and Mexico either directly through branch offices or in partnership with locally organized affiliates. The latter are reported in Part II, Grants or Other Assistance to Organizations Outside the U.S. The affiliated organizations are recognized as not-for-profit or civic organizations under local laws. Agros International monitors grant funds in the following ways: prior review and analysis of proposed activities and expenses before funds are committed, operating agreements with affiliates that specify the terms and conditions of the funding collaborations, required detailed monthly financial reporting which is reviewed by both program and financial staff prior to release of additional funds, required progress reporting on program accomplishments and performance indicators, program oversight and monitoring by regional and international staff, including site visits, financial review procedures conducted by international staff, and required independent audits for affiliates. Additional monitoring procedures may be implemented depending on the capacities of a particular affiliate or the activities funded. |

| Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c | The organization has a written conflict of interest policy which board members review and update annually. The policy requires disclosure of interests, relationships and holdings that could potentially result in a conflict of interest. Board members are also required on an ongoing basis to disclose any interests in an organizational transaction or decision which would affect themselves, their family members, employer or associates, and may not participate in discussion or voting on such matters. Staff are also required to adhere to the conflict of interest policy. |
| Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15  | The compensation for the CEO position is set by the board of directors, all of whom are independent, using data on compensation rates for comparable positions, the advice of professionals in the field, and with consideration for budget constraints and equity among positions within the organization. CEO compensation must be approved by the board. There are no other paid officers. Key employee compensation is set by the CEO.                                                                                                                                                 |
| Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19  | The organization's Form 990 is available on its website, www.agros.org , and public website including www.Guidestar.org . The Form 1023 application for recognition of exemption was filed in 1984. The organization does not have a copy and is unable to make it available upon request. It did not have a copy on July 15, 1987, and is therefore exempt from the requirement to make it available which went into effect at that time. The conflict of interest policy is available on request.              |
| Form 990, Part XII, Line 2c            | The audit committee selects the independent accountant for performance of the annual audit of Agros International's financial statements, oversees the audit, and meets independently with the auditors at the end of the audit. This process has not changed from the prior year.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
