Part III line 2 and 4d,

Total programmatic expenditures of $32,802 include part II 4 a-b plus $8862 in travel, $2184 in publications, $6256 in software. The listed activities in Part II line 4a-b are new projects this FY. All other activity is a continuation of prior years expensed grants.

Part IV line 38 relative to Part VI lines 11 and 19

All financial actions are approved by the 15 person voting board in the form of a budget. An Executive committee is charged to make decisions for the Executive director that involve deviation from the budget plan that may relate to a potential conflict of interest that was not apparent to the board at the time of developing a budget. The annual report, inclusive of all Board decisions and financial statements are available on request. Formal audits are conducted after major research projects/grants and available upon request with the most recent for the 2008-2012 period. CORRIM encourages participating institutions in conducting life cycle research and competition for projects to advance the science so there is little concern over organizational conflicts of interest.

Part VI line 15,

CORRIM has no employees so compensation policies affecting officers that serve without pay are not applicable.

Part XII line 1,

Accounting is on a cash basis except that pledges are booked as revenue and a receivable when invoiced, and supporting technical service contracts are booked as encumbered expenditures (payables) when the contract is issued. This is not the same as accrual accounting, which is unnecessarily time consuming for not benefit while reducing the transparency of a and obligated funds. The expenditures can easily be adjusted to a cash basis when needed for reports.

Part VI lines 3, 11, and 19

Form 990 is completed by the Executive Director. The contents of the forms are reviewed with the Treasurer as an internal audit controller.

The forms are also reviewed by outside auditors in conjunction with formal end of project audits, typically every 4 years.

The financial statements forming the basis of the 990 report are published in the annual report which is approved by the Board and available on demand. Formal audits are also available on demand.

The written conflict of interest policy encourages organizations to compete on research with in the research interests of CORRIM.

If CORRIM provides the lead, any individual conflicts of interest are considered in preparation of the proposal and the Boards approval of budgets. Most Board members are faculty and may be involved in the research contracted with their institution. The selection of research institutions to provide the research for grants CORRIM receives is made by the full Board in an open discussion of who can best carry out the research needed considering both member and non-member institutions and consultants.

Part VII List of Officers and Board of Directors

15 research institutions make up the voting Board of Directors who donate time without compensation. The Executive Director is non-voting and would be considered a key employee if CORRIM had employees but provides the support through an administrative management contract currently with University of Washington.

Part XII line 3

We did not meet the criterion for the Single Audit Act as expenditures did not met the $500,000 limit yet.
