Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III . . . . . [X]

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission

Founded in 1852, Mills College (the "College") is an independent liberal arts college for women, with graduate programs for both women and men. The college provides education and training services for undergraduate women and graduate women and men, and performs training and other programs under grants, contracts, and similar agreements with its sponsors, primarily departments and agencies of the United States government, and private donors. The College educates its students to think critically and communicate responsibly and effectively, to accept the challenges of their creative visions, and to acquire the knowledge and skills necessary to understand the natural world and effect thoughtful changes in society. The College encourages openness to experimentation and change in the context of established academic disciplines. The curriculum combines the traditional liberal arts with new educational initiatives that recognize the value of cultural, racial, and ethnic diversity.

Collections of Art, Historical Treasures or Other Similar Assets	Schedule D, Part III, Line 4 Collection items are acquired by donation and include works of art, rare books, and documents Collections are held for the purposes of enhancing curriculum and for public exhibition for educational purposes or research They are not for financial gain Collections are protected, cared for, and preserved
Intended Use of Endowment Funds	Schedule D, Part V, Line 4 Endowment Funds are managed and used for the purpose of ensuring continued support for the college's long term educational purposes The long term financial goal for the endowment investment portfolio is to provide a relatively stable stream of expendable revenue that increases over time, at least as fast as the general rate of inflation
FIN 48 (ASC 740) Footnote	Schedule D, Part X, Line 2 The College has identified and evaluated significant tax positions in its significant tax jurisdictions which are the federal and California state tax jurisdictions The College has also determined that the open tax years are generally three years for federal and four years for California tax purposes Thus, the general open tax years are the years ended June 30, 2011 through June 30, 2014 for federal purposes and the years ended June 30, 2010 through June 30, 2014 for California purposes For both federal and California, there is an unrelated business income net operating loss carryover of approximately $1,343,371 and $1,260,294 as of June 30, 2013 and June 30, 2012, to utilize for the tax years ended June 30, 2014 and June 30, 2013, respectively The carryover extends the statute of limitations and thus the open tax years for purposes of the net operating loss only are the years ended June 30, 2005 through June 30, 2007 and June 30, 2009 to June 30, 2010 for federal purposes and the years ended June 30, 2005 through June 30, 2007 and June 30, 2009 for California purposes The net operating loss carryover will begin to expire June 30, 2025 for federal purposes and June 30, 2015 for California purposes The College applies ASC 740-10-25, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes, to all tax positions for which the statute of limitations remained open and determined there were no material unrecognized tax benefits as of the year ended June 30, 2014 and the year ended June 30, 2013, nor are any changes anticipated in the twelve months following June 30, 2014 A net operating loss can only be reflected as a benefit (deferred tax asset) on the statement on financial position when it is likely that the loss would be utilized against taxable income in another tax year Since there is not presently a likelihood of taxable income in another tax year, the College does not have a deferred tax asset on the statement of financial position and there have been no related tax penalties or interest, which would be classified as tax expense in the statement of activities
