Part III

Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III

☐

1

Briefly describe the organization's mission

The Contra Costa Child Care Council provides leadership to promote and advance quality care and early education through a variety of initiatives, programs and services

2

Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ?

☐ Yes ☒ No

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O

3

Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services?

☐ Yes ☒ No

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O

4

Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported

4a

(Code) (Expenses $ 15,128,470 including grants of $) (Revenue $ 15,903,506)

Child Care Fund The Councils Child Care Fund provides subsidies on a sliding fee scale basis to low-income families to assist them in paying for child care so they may work or pursue employment training. The Fund also provides subsidies for children at risk of abuse or neglect so they may attend a quality child care program. Currently 1,105 families with 1,773 children are receiving assistance through the Councils Child Care Fund

4b

(Code) (Expenses $ 2,876,777 including grants of $) (Revenue $ 2,848,258)

Child Health & Nutrition Program The Councils Child Health & Nutrition program offers education, consultation, training and materials on childrens health, safety and nutrition to family child care providers and centers throughout the county. Family child care providers may also participate in the Councils Child Care Food Program which provides partial reimbursement for meals which meet nutritional standards set by the U.S. Department of Agriculture. To better serve the needs of low-income children and families, the Council has begun to reach out to license exempt care givers who frequently serve these families, and offer them the training and support available to those participating in the Child Care Food Program. More than 6,000 children and their families are positively impacted by their child care providers participation in the Councils Child Health and Nutrition programs

4c

(Code) (Expenses $ 596,836 including grants of $) (Revenue $ 859,063)

Learning Institute & Other Programs The Learning Institute seeks to improve the quality of child care programming in the county through targeted training, technical assistance and mini grants for child care programs. The Inclusion Project has a team of trained facilitators who go into child care classrooms and family child care homes to assist with the transition of a child with special needs into the program. The facilitators work directly with the children, modeling best practices for the care giver, and support the parents through what is sometimes a very difficult transition. The Council also has a lending library with equipment, toys and materials specifically designated for children with special needs which child care programs can access

4d

Other program services (Describe in Schedule O)

(Expenses $ 544,168 including grants of $) (Revenue $ 465,950)

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X FIN48 Footnote	The Council has adopted Financial Accounting Standards Board Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) Section 740-10, which clarifies the accounting for uncertainty in income taxes. ASC Section 740-10 prescribes a recognition threshold and measurement attribute for the financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. ASC Section 740-10 requires that an organization recognize in the financial statements the impact of the tax position if that position will more likely than not be sustained on audit, based on the technical merits of the position. As of and for the year ended June 30, 2014, the Council had no material unrecognized tax benefits, tax penalties or interest. The Council's Forms 990, Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax, for the years ending 2012, 2011, 2010, are subject to examination by the IRS, generally for 3 years after they were filed.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4d Other Program Services Description	OTHER PROGRAM SERVICES 4 Learning Institute & Other Programs The Learning Institute seeks to improve the quality of child care programming in the county through targeted training, technical assistance and mini grants for child care programs The Inclusion Project has a team of trained facilitators who go into child care classrooms and family child care homes to assist with the transition of a child with special needs into the program. The facilitators work directly with the children, modeling best practices for the care giver, and support the parents through what is sometimes a very difficult transition. The Council also has a lending library with equipment, toys and materials specifically designated for children with special needs which child care programs can access. OTHER PROGRAM SERVICES 5 Preschool Makes a Difference Program supports families who are not able to afford preschool and do not qualify for a subsidy scholarship for their 3 to 5 year old to attend a high quality preschool. The facilitators ensure that the preschools maintain a high quality of care, culturally and linguistically appropriate for participants and focus on children from birth through 5. Currently, 144 children are receiving assistance $109,812.

The remaining board or committee members shall decide if a conflict of interest exists. Procedures for Addressing the Conflict of Interest a. An interested person may make a presentation at the governing board or committee meeting, but after the presentation, he/she shall leave the meeting during the discussion of, and the vote on, the transaction or arrangement involving the possible conflict of interest. b. The chairperson of the governing board or committee shall, if appropriate, appoint a disinterested person or committee to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement. c. After exercising due diligence, the governing board or committee will determine whether the Organization can obtain with reasonable efforts a more advantageous transaction or arrangement from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest. d. If a more advantageous transaction or arrangement is not reasonably possible under circumstances not producing a conflict of interest, the governing board or committee shall determine by a majority vote of the disinterested directors whether the transaction or arrangement is in the organizations best interest, for its own benefit, and whether it is fair and reasonable. In conformity with the above determination it shall make its decision as to whether to enter into the transaction or arrangement in accordance with established board policies and procedures.
