Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b	The tax return is presented to the finance committee of the board of trustees for review and approval prior to submission and the entire board receives a copy before filing

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c	All trustees and employees of Westmont College annually certify as to whether or not they have any direct or indirect conflicts of interest. If a conflict exists at the time of certification or is identified subsequent to certification, such disclosures are taken to the Chair of the Board of Trustees, who then consults with the Board Executive Committee, for those matters involving trustees, and to the President, who then consults with the Executive Team, for those matters involving employees. Decisions of the Executive Committee and the Executive Team on these matters rest in their sole discretion. A process exists for anyone who believes the conflict of interest policy has not been followed or may have been violated, to report that information.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15	The President's compensation is reviewed and approved annually by the Personnel Committee of the Board of Trustees. The Personnel Committee consists of only independent members of the board. The Committee reviews multiple national and regional private college presidential compensation studies as benchmarks for determining the compensation of Westmont's President. Similarly, national and regional private college compensation studies are consulted by the President prior to determining the salaries of senior executives of the college and recommending those amounts to the Personnel Committee of the Board of Trustees. Compensation related actions of the Personnel Committee are captured in writing.
