Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III

X

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission:

When hardship/crisis poses a threat, we offer services that build a foundation for success. Our child-centered, family-focused approach provides crucial, integrated support: early education, health, special needs intervention, family strengthening supports, foster/adoption.

2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ?

Yes No X

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services?

Yes No X

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O

4 Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses.

Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported

4a (Code) (Expenses $ 4,149,119. including grants of $) (Revenue $)

Early Education: Our early education programs, which include a California State Preschool and an Early Head Start, provide very-low-income parents with high-quality early education services for approximately 400 children (ages 0 to 5) each day at our state-of-the-art early education center, through our network of licensed family childcare homes throughout the community, as well as in individual family homes. The Center recruits highly-qualified teachers, child development specialists, and master's-level managers and ensures very low staff-to-child ratios in our classrooms. The Center's investment in professional development training and activities provides at-risk children with the rich, stimulating environment they need to succeed in school and beyond. Our programs empower parents to advocate

4b (Code) (Expenses $ 1,297,009. including grants of $) (Revenue $)

Child Welfare: The Center has five service contracts with the Los Angeles County Department of Children and Family Services (DCFS) to provide Family Preservation, Family Support, Prevention Initiative Demonstration Project, and Foster Care and Adoption services to over 200 families each month. These child welfare and family support programs protect at-risk children and strengthen families, through in-home and on-site assessments, counseling, and case management. Our highly-trained staff, many of who have master degrees, work with high-risk families to address issues such as violence, substance abuse, and depression. When a child's needs cannot be met by the biological family, we recruit, train, and support foster parents who provide safe, nurturing homes. In cases when reunification is not in the child's best

4c (Code) (Expenses $ 294,509. including grants of $) (Revenue $ 87,922.)

Integrated Supplemental Services: Because the Center understands the importance of addressing the needs of the "whole child," involvement in any of the Center's programs connects children and their families to the Center's full array of comprehensive child development and family support services, including access to the Center's full-time public health nurse, healthcare and mental healthcare referrals, screenings (dental, hearing, and special needs), and the Center's full-time disabilities and school readiness coordinators. The Center links families to many additional services thanks to numerous community partnerships with local universities and other service providers (UCLA, Teach for America, Venice Family Clinic, etc.). The Center's holistic approach ensures every child's healthy social-emotional, physical, and

4d Other program services (Describe in Schedule O)

(Expenses $ including grants of $) (Revenue $)

Part X, Line 2:

Explanation: The Center is exempt from taxation under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3) and California Revenue and Taxation Code Section 23701d.

Generally accepted accounting principles provide accounting and disclosure guidance about positions taken by an organization in its tax returns that might be uncertain. Management has considered its tax positions and believes that all of the positions taken by the Center in its federal and state exempt organization tax returns are more likely than not to be sustained upon examination. The Center's returns are subject to examination by federal and state taxing authorities, generally for three
