Return Reference	Explanation
Schedule D, Part V, Line 4	The endowment funds of Union University are invested in perpetuity to yield investment income and capital appreciation, which is used to provide scholarships to students and support the programs of the university, in accordance with policies and guidelines and under the management of the Union University Foundation. Any donor-imposed restrictions on the use of the funds are strictly followed in the spending or other use of those funds.
Schedule D, Part X, Line 2	The University accounts for the effect of any uncertain tax positions based on a "more likely than not" threshold to the recognition of the tax positions being sustained based on the technical merits of the position under examination by the applicable taxing authority. If a tax position or positions are deemed to result in uncertainties of those positions, the unrecognized tax benefit is estimated based on a cumulative probability assessment that aggregates the estimated tax liability for all uncertain tax positions. Tax positions for the University include, but are not limited to, the tax exempt status and determination of whether income is subject to unrelated business income tax, however, the University has determined that such tax positions do not result in an uncertainty requiring recognition. The University files informational returns, which are open for examination by authorities for three years after filing. The tax returns for 2011, 2012 and 2013 are still open to examination.
Schedule D, Part XI, Line 4b	Institutional student aid that was netted against tuition revenues in the financial statements for presentation purposes.
Schedule D, Part XII, Line 4b	Institutional student aid that was netted against tuition revenues in the financial statements for presentation purposes.
