Return Reference	Explanation
Part III, Line 1a	The University maintains an art collection, which consists of works of art, including prints, painting, photographs, and sculptures that are held for the purpose of public exhibition, education, and research. Each item is cataloged, preserved, and cared for, and activities verifying their existence and assessing their condition are performed by the Museum Director. The art collection is not recognized as an asset on the statement of financial position.
Part III, Line 4	The daily, annual and long-range operations of the Hofstra University Museum are consonant with the missions of the University and consistent with the governance of the University. Just as the University holds a public trust and acts for the public good pursuant to its Charter by the Regents of the University of the State of New York, so does the Hofstra University Museum hold a public trust and acts in the public good as an agency of the University through its exhibitions, its permanent collection, its public and educational programming, as well as its interpretative, scholarly activities and publications.
Part X	Income generated that is unrelated to the University's exempt purpose is subject to tax. The University believes it did not have any material tax liability nor any significant uncertain tax positions for the years ended August 31, 2014 and 2013. Accordingly, no provision for income taxes has been reflected in the University's financial statements.
Reconciliation of Revenue - Other	Part XII, Line 2d represent amounts included on Line 1, but not on Form 990, Part VIII, Line 12 and is made up of the following: Rental Expenses 4,874 Gaming Expenses 10,628 Fundraising Expenses 615,660 ----- Total 631,162. Part XII, Line 4b represent amounts included on Form 990, Part VIII, Line 12, but not on Line 1 and is made up of the following: Scholarships of $103,263,088.
Part XIII, Line 2d and Line 4b	Part XIII, Line 2d represent amounts included on Line 1, but not on Form 990, Part IX, Line 25 and is made up of the following: Rental Expenses 4,874 Gaming Expenses 10,628 Fundraising Expenses 615,660 ----- Total 631,162. Part XIII, Line 4b represent amounts included on Form 990, Part IX, Line 25, but not on Line 1 and is made up of the following: Scholarships of $103,263,088.
Part I	There are no instances in which a donor has the right to provide advice on the investment of endowment funds. There are no instances in which the donor has the right to select how and to whom the funds are distributed. In 13 cases, the spending and distribution is recommended by a committee in which the donor has the right to be a member, or the selection of the recipient is made in consultation with the donor. In all instances the University approves the scholarship recipient, and in no instance is there a relationship between the donor and the recipient. The aggregate value of the 13 funds is $1,176,113, representing 0.3% of the total endowment value at August 31, 2014.
Schedule D, Part V	The University endowment funds are used to support student scholarships, professorships, facilities and other programs.

Return Reference	Explanation

Explanation

Form 990, Part VI,
Section A,
Question 2

As per statements filed annually with the University, no officer, director, trustee, key employees, highest compensated employees, or highest compensated professional or other independent contractors receiving any compensation from the organization is related to any other such entity through family or business relationships Former Officer, Directors, Trustees, and key employees Form 990, Schedule J The University contributes to retiree health benefits for Former employees, including former officers

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part IV, Line 9	In the ordinary course of business, the University provides information to students and parents regarding eligibility for Title IV student assistance, including student and parent loans, University scholarship and loan programs, and internal and external payment plan arrangements which are available to finance tuition and fees at Hofstra. In addition, the University is engaged in the collection of tuition and fee balances from students for the current and prior terms, including entering into agreements for the collection and payment of amounts due and owing.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Line 11	Form 990 is prepared by the University, and reviewed by an outside tax consultant. The VP for Financial Affairs and Treasurer also reviews the return with the President, Senior VP for Planning and the VP for Legal Affairs and General Counsel. The final return is submitted to the Audit Committee of the Board of Trustees and the full Board of Trustees prior to signing and filing the return.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Line 15	The Hofstra University Board of Trustees Compensation Committee has oversight of all elements of executive compensation and reports to the entire Board on such matters. Specifically, the Committee reviews thoroughly the compensation of the President and officers and other key employees. The Committee assesses and approves the reasonableness of the compensation of the President, other officers are recommended by the President to the Board of Trustees. General Counsel is responsible for providing the necessary data to the Committee and the Board in order for the review to take place each year. Members of the Committee, as well as any third parties providing professional advice to the Committee, must be independent and have no conflicts of interest as to the compensation being reviewed, the officer who is being reviewed, or any products or services being considered. Such review includes a comparison of data as presented on the 990 tax return of comparable institutions, adjusted as appropriate for the New York metropolitan area and updated to the present year. Consideration is given to the breadth and complexity of programs, such as medical and law schools. The review also includes an assessment of the duties and responsibilities of each officer and the overall performance of each. From time to time, the University engages an outside consultant to review the comparables and to assist the Committee in its deliberations. The Committee reviews its recommendations with the Board of Trustees for final approval. The actions of the Committee and Board of Trustees are set forth in the minutes, including the information reviewed in determining comparability and the basis for determining that the compensation is reasonable.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c	The University's bylaws set forth a conflict of interest policy for Trustees prohibiting certain transactions and requiring disclosure of any conflict that might arise. Annually, all Trustees must complete and sign a compliance and disclosure statement which is reviewed and maintained as a matter of record by the University's General Counsel. Any disclosure or matter in violation of the policy is brought to the attention of the Board of Trustees. In addition, there is a conflict of interest policy for all administrative employees prohibiting certain actions and requiring disclosure of any conflict that might arise. Annually, employees must complete and sign a compliance and disclosure statement which is reviewed and maintained as a matter of record by the Office of Human Resources. Any questionable activity is not permitted until the appropriate Vice President has determined that sufficient safeguards exist to fully protect the University's interests and the University's General Counsel has reviewed.
