Part IV Supplemental Information. Provide the information required in Part I, line 2, Part III, column (b), and any other additional information.

Our scholarship program serves those families in our community who are undergoing financial hardship, whose children wish to participate in our arts programs. Our organization solicits donations to our scholarship fund, those funds are then made available to families whose children want to participate in our programs: kids who would not otherwise be able to participate for lack of money. We track internally the funds donated to our scholarship fund, the recipients, when the scholarship was granted, and for what programs. We know that in FY 2013 we were able to provide 52 students with $16603 in combined tuition support through the program, as show in Part III columns (b) and (c). The scholarship program is advertised publicly, and is available to anyone regardless of race, ability, gender, or any other factor. To be considered for a scholarship, the legal guardian of child wishing to participate in one of our programs must fill out a BAAY scholarship application. The application expresses the financial need of the family, and is otherwise based on the honor system. Once an application is completed, we evaluate our financial capacity to grant the request, and then grant requests based on a model of "as much as we can do". No applicant is turned away unless granting the scholarship would compromise our fundamental ability to function as an organization. Scholarship amounts range from 25% to 100% of the tuition cost of a program.

Part VI, Section A, Line 8b: our organization had no committees.

Part VI, Section B, Line 11b: Printed paper copies of the completed form 990 and all schedules were provided to each member of the board of directors at a board meeting prior to filing with the IRS. Electronic versions of the documents were attached in an email that was sent to each board member. The forms were reviewed by our board Treasurer, Seth Murphy, at the board meeting. Each schedule section and schedule were reviewed.

These conflicts are discussed by the board, and taken in account before board voting on decisions that may involve the conflict. Board members with conflicts are excluded from voting on these issues, and leave the room while the discussion and voting takes place.

Part VI, Section B, Line 15a: Our CEO's compensation was determined at a board meeting where comparable salaries were presented, BAAY's budget was presented by our CFO, and all the information was reviewed by our board Treasurer and Secretary before they set his salary.

This volunteerism raises our estimate considerably 14 productions annually, made up of an average of 56 show nights, staffed by at least 3 parents per night. Accounting for repeat volunteers, we estimate 80 volunteers annually, in addition to our interns and community
