Part I, Line 1a:

Boston Children's Heart Foundation, Inc. (the Foundation)

established a Tuition Assistance Plan that superseded the previous Tuition Plan effective January 1, 2007. The plan provides annual contribution payments for eligible participants, based on years of membership service to the Foundation and number of children, to a qualified state tuition program described in Section 529 of the Internal Revenue Code 1986 as amended. The plan provides an income tax gross-up equal to 30% of such contributions to assist participants in defraying the cost of income taxes. The Plan provides for a transition for those participants who received benefits under the previous plan, or those who were Foundation members for more than three years and had at least one child who had attained age 14 as of July 1, 2007. These members will not have the same interest accrual advantage as those with younger children, and can elect to have a lump-sum contribution or can elect to have tuition reimbursement up to the amount of tuition established by Harvard University, plus an income tax gross-up based on years of membership service as an Assistant Professor or higher up to a maximum of 34%. The following participated in the plans for September

On June 30, 2005, the Foundation elected to freeze the severance benefit plan. The Foundation established this plan to supplement benefits available to certain employees, and to encourage such employees to remain in employment with the Foundation. Participation, benefit amounts, and other key provisions of this nonqualified benefit plan are determined at the sole discretion of the Foundation's Board of Directors. Although the assets of the plan have been irrevocably set aside for payment of deferred compensation benefits, they are subject first to the claims of the Foundation's creditors in the event the Foundation is subject to bankruptcy proceedings. The assets of the plan are reflected in the accompanying financial statements as assets limited as to use. The Foundation made a severance payment to the following individual during the year ended September 30, 2014: Frank Cecchin, MD, $117,480.

The detailed review will be conducted by the President of the Foundation, James E. Lock, MD; the administrator, Janine Santimauro; and the financial reporting manager, Joseph Cantlin. A copy of Form 990 will be available to the board. The detailed review will be conducted before filing the return with the Internal Revenue Service.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c:

The Physicians' Organization at Children's Hospital, Inc. (the PO) and Boston Children's Hospital (the Hospital) administer an annual conflict of interest disclosure process to all of its member Foundations, which asks physicians (officers, top management, and highly compensated employees) and selected Foundation staff to disclose potential conflicts. A disclosure statement will be circulated annually to members of the PO. The audit committee shall determine those individuals (including medical staff members) who shall be required to complete the disclosure statement. The audit committee, at its discretion, may either: 1) refer any or all disclosure statements to the Board of Directors; 2) appoint an ad hoc committee to review and resolve any conflict of interest issues; or 3) review and resolve any conflict of interest issues personally or through a designee(s). Any person not receiving a disclosure statement nevertheless has an affirmative obligation to disclose to the PO President, PO General Counsel, or his/her supervisor whenever he/she believes he/she has or may have a conflict of interest. Similarly, each person completing a disclosure statement has an affirmative obligation to update the statement any time circumstances change and/or he/she believes that a conflict of interest may exist. In the event a conflict of interest is found to exist, the Foundation prohibits the member from voting on any matter to which the

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15:

All the physicians (top management, officers, and highly compensated individuals) fall under compensation guidelines determined by Harvard University (Harvard), with limitations established for certain positions/ranks within the medical school. Annually, compensation is reviewed and reported to Boston Children's Hospital's (the Hospital's) Board of Trustees to ensure that total direct and indirect compensation does not exceed the pre-determined guidelines of Harvard. Any new indirect benefit plan requires approval by the Boston Children's Heart Foundation's (the Foundation's) Board of Directors, which then must be reviewed and permitted by the Hospital. Major procedures of the approval process involve: comparing compensation data of physicians within the comparable field of medicine; indirect compensation currently being offered; and the financial stability of the Foundation. This process was followed for the year ended September 30, 2014.

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19:
