Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 2	Walter Shipley and Dorothy Shipley have a family relationship

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 6	The Organization has two classes of members: Supporting Members and Governing Members. Supporting Members of the Corporation shall be any natural person who has an interest in the goals and activities of the Corporation and has evidenced such interest by paying the annual assessment or by making another contribution to the Corporation in its then current or previous fiscal year or is a member of a National Affiliate or an organization belonging to a Regional Council. Supporting Members shall be entitled to participate in all of the Corporation's activities and to attend all meetings of Governing Members, but shall not be entitled to vote thereat. The Governing Members of the Corporation shall be those persons who are directors at the date the Corporation's by-laws are enacted, for so long as they remain directors and until the end of the meeting at which their replacements are elected or appointed. Thereafter, any person elected or appointed to the Board of Directors shall automatically become a Governing Member upon his election or appointment and shall remain a Governing Member until the earlier of the time he/she resigns, dies, is removed, ceases to be qualified as a Director, or until the end of the meeting at which his/her replacement is elected. Governing Members shall be entitled not only to participate in all of the Corporation's activities, receive notices of meetings of the Governing Members and attend such meetings, but also to vote thereat.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 7a	The Governing Members may elect one or more members of the Board of Directors

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11	A copy of the Form 990 is distributed to each member of the Organization's Board of Directors by email or mail before it is filed. The Form 990 is prepared by a member of the Organization's management with assistance from other responsible employees. It is reviewed by the Organization's official preparer, Baker Newman Noyes, and distributed to all members of the Organization's governing body (Board of Directors) before filing.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	Every director shall avoid placing himself/herself in any situation where his/her personal interest or his/her position as an officer, director, or trustee in an enterprise or association would be in conflict with his/her obligations as a director of the Corporation. A director shall declare to the Corporation, forthwith, any interest or position he/she has in an enterprise or association that may place him/her in a situation of conflict of interest and of any right he/she may set up against it, indicating their nature and value, where applicable. The declaration of an interest or position shall be recorded in the minutes of the meetings of the Board of Directors or in a signed resolution in lieu of such meeting. A general notice that a director holds an interest or a position in a given enterprise or association, together with a description of the nature and value of such interest or position, shall constitute a sufficient declaration of an interest or a position pursuant to this by-law. After the director has given such a general notice, he/she shall not be required to give a special notice with respect to a specific transaction with such enterprise or association.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	The Board of Directors has established a Human Resources Committee whose terms of reference include providing assistance to the Board in the discharge of its fiduciary responsibilities relating to the fair and competitive compensation of the senior management and staff of the Organization in connection with compensation, benefits, and non-compensation incentives. The Committee: a) reviews the staff compensation philosophy and guidelines that support the Corporation's overall goals and objectives, and recommends amendments, if any, to the Board; b) receives periodic reports from the President or other ASF officers on the various components of the compensation and benefits package covering the staff of the Atlantic Salmon Federation, so that the Committee, on behalf of the Board, may satisfy itself that the Atlantic Salmon Federation's compensation package, taken as a whole, is fair and competitive, and contributes positively to the Atlantic Salmon Federation's ability to attract and retain a first class staff; c) may direct that a third party survey of compensation and benefits at comparable organizations and/or of comparable jobs is undertaken from time to time and shall have the power to engage independent advisors or consultants to assist the Committee in the discharge of its duties; d) provides recommendations to the Board regarding management succession; e) reviews and approves corporate goals and objectives relevant to the President's compensation, evaluates the President's performance in light of those goals and objectives, and has the authority to determine the President's compensation level based on this evaluation. The Human Resources Committee does not get involved in the remuneration or performance assessments of individual staff members other than the President and senior management. The Committee consults at least annually with the President and reviews recommendations from him with respect to compensation for members of the Corporation's senior management.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19	The Organization's governing documents, conflict of interest policy and financial statements are available to the public upon request. Financial statements are also published in the Organization's annual report, available on the Organization's website.
