Part VII Supplemental Information

Provide additional information for responses to questions on Schedule R (see instructions)

Bay Aging has over 36 years experience in providing extended care services for people of all ages and their caregivers, and includes many veterans. The Bay Aging Foundation further supports Bay Aging's mission by annually donating a percentage of Foundation funds directly toward services.

Our mission is to deliver the programs and services people of all ages need to live independently in their own homes and communities for as long as possible. We depend on many different forms of funding including private donations from individuals. Bay Aging consistently has a successful track record with responsible and sound fiscal practices. Bay Aging leverages additional funding by seeking out opportunities to enhance programs and services for people of all ages. Many of our services are not age dependent and greatly benefit low-wage earners as well as seniors.

We operate proactively by initiating, facilitating and seeking funding for impact programs and services that Bay Aging's Board of Directors identifies as top priorities. We are strategic in assessing the communities' needs, assessing our organization's strengths/weaknesses and our capacity to deliver the programs and services people in our region need to live healthier lives.

Services that make a difference in providing extended care include:

Community Living	Bay Transit	Bay Family Housing
Options counseling, Meals on Wheels, homemaker and personal care services, companion services, adult day care, senior centers, support groups, insurance and Medicare Part D counseling, ombudsman, senior employment program, legal assistance, information and assistance, care transitions intervention, tax credit assistance, emergency services and more.	Only public transportation in twelve rural counties available to people of all ages and for all reasons.  New Freedom Mobility Management provides transportation services for seniors and people with disabilities for all reasons.  Logisticare Medicaid transportation.	Senior apartment communities with supportive services.  Substantial home rehab through community development block grants, emergency home repairs, weatherization and energy conservation, indoor plumbing rehabilitation.
Bay Aging is the first and only Area Agency on Aging in Virginia providing veterans' directed home and community based services. Through referrals received from Hunter McGuire Veterans Medical Center in Richmond, veterans of any age at-risk of being placed in skilled nursing facilities can choose to receive services that will allow them to continue living in their own home for a longer period of time. Bay Aging has worked with organizations throughout Virginia to help veterans receive such services.
Bay Aging partners with many other organizations such as Rappahannock Community College, Visions, Boys and Girls Clubs, YMCAs, Health Families, Gloucester Parks and Recreation, Virginia Cooperative Extension, churches and many others to deliver programs that provide a positive influence by educating and enriching young lives and families.
