Fulfilling a Relief Grant Request

Relief requests will be reviewed for completeness. An HR business partner will be assigned to follow up with the requesting employee and provide any additional information. After processing of grant requests, the Selection Committee will meet, consider the relief request, and approve or deny the request or request additional information or documentation.

If the request is denied, the employee will be provided a reason for the decision. If additional relevant information is provided after denial, the request may be reconsidered.
