*Investments consist of mutual funds. We are trying to increase the total investments amount to protect the organization in case the weather does not cooperate. Our main fundraisers are a softball and volleyball tournament. If the weather does not cooperate, we will still have a reserve fund to give out donations and scholarships. In essence, we are trying to build an endowment fund from the investments. If the weather does cooperate, we will be able to grow the this fund and we will be able to present larger contributions and/or more of them in the future.

15 Accumulation of a surplus

Since most of our fund-raising revolves around a softball tournament, we are trying to build up an "endowment fund" to allow our organization to make contributions even if the weather does not cooperate. In addition, we are trying to increase the amount that we are able to give out for scholarships.
