28 The Des Moines African American Leadership Forum is a project funded by the Northwest Area Foundation, the Headwaters Foundation and the Greater Des Moines Community Foundation. The project, led by The Directors Council, is bringing together African Americans in the Des Moines community to prioritize the most critical issues facing African Americans and create an agenda and steps to address those issues and offer solutions around family, leadership development, education, criminal justice, economic development and health. AALF began the African American Leadership Academy to prepare the next generation of leaders for the African American community. The group continues to work alongside other community partners to create a thriving African American community in central Iowa. The Directors Council developed Summer in the City-Investing in the Core to offer programs for children and families during the 10 weeks in the summer. Programs are focused in the 10 neighborhoods that make up the Urban Core (inner city) of Des Moines during the early evening hours. The Directors Council partners with the Greater Des Moines Community Foundation, the United Way of Central Iowa, and local non profit organizations and neighborhood associations to offer a variety of activities throughout the summer.
