Return Reference	Explanation
Part X FIN48 Footnote	MCMC is exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(5) of the Internal Revenue Code and applicable state law. The accounting standard on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. Under that guidance, MCMC may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities based on the technical merits of the position. Examples of tax positions include the tax-exempt status of MCMC and various positions related to the potential sources of unrelated business taxable income (UBIT). MCMC files forms 990 in the U S federal jurisdiction. MCMC is generally no longer subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service three years after the forms were filed.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 11b Form 990 Review Process	No review was or will be conducted
Form 990, Part VI, Line 15a Compensation Review & Approval Process - CEO, Top Management	The MCGA President and MCMC Chairperson have been designated by the board to yearly evaluate the CEO along with the organizations goals and objectives. The process includes a discussion of yearly goals and objectives and how they were met. A general discussion is held regarding the CEOs direct activities and successes during the year along with an evaluation of staff provided by the CEO. The CEO has a contract which renews yearly for a two year period as long as both parties agree. Salary increases and performance bonuses are discussed between the CEO, President and Chairman and made on an annual basis. Outside information from the American Society of Association Executives, Missouri Society of Association Executives, the National Corn Growers Association and others is used to provide prospective on salaries of other comparable positions and to provide guidance to fulfill the MCGA/MCMC obligations under the contract to the CEO. After this initial meeting, the entire board of directors is given a report in executive session from that meeting. A general discussion is held between the board and CEO. After that, the CEO leaves the room and the board decides whether to accept the recommendations from the President and Chairperson or to make changes to those recommendations. Finally, the CEO is presented any final comments from the board and the formal salary and bonus adjustments. The CEO then indicates to the board his/her reaction to the proposal and an agreement is reached. Then the executive session is ended. A report of the salary and bonus adjustments is given to the appropriate staff for future payment.
