Form 990 - Organization's Mission

The National Association of Chiefs of Police, Inc. (NACOP) is organized as a charitable and educational not-for-profit company directed to provide services to officers who hold supervisory positions in federal, state, county, University and local law enforcement agencies within the borders of the United States and its territories. This includes individuals who are involved in the security industry and work hand in hand in the protection of life and property of this nation.

The corporation has a multi-faceted program service effort including, but not limited to, the following:

- a. To maintain and perpetuate the American Police Hall of Fame and Museum for the purpose of honoring officers who have died in the line of duty in the United States of America and its territories and possessions and to house a museum of law enforcement artifacts for public display to promote the law enforcement profession and help develop the public's understanding of the day to day challenges faced by law enforcement professionals.
- b. To educate and promote the annual observance of Peace Officers' Week and May 15th, Peace Officers' Memorial Day, to the general public through activities and sponsored programs.
- c. To offer assistance to officers and to the families of officers who have been disabled in the line of duty.
- d. To encourage educational activities and services to upgrade law enforcement and security on a professional level.
- e. To publish, distribute and print materials relative to law enforcement history, training and services and research material which may be funded by the corporation.

f. To hold meetings and sponsor seminars and conferences for the purpose of educating and upgrading those who may supervise agencies in law enforcement at the federal, state, county, University and local levels as well as private security, as needed.

g. To encourage citizen support for law enforcement, for the establishment and maintenance of a law enforcement memorial and museum and for honoring those who serve and protect in the community on all levels of government.

h. To help fund or provide resources to law enforcement agencies for crime prevention and/or crime deterrence programs or services for which funds or resources are not readily available to the agency. Such funding and/or resources may be provided for such programs and/or services which may include, but need not be limited to, police K9's, K9 program related expenses, community oriented gun safety programs and children's safety education.

i. To operate a gun range at which police departments, officers and the public can safely participate in firearm education, training, skill development, recreation and competition and at which the public can develop a better understanding of the firearm competencies required of police officers.

j. To operate a pro shop common to gun ranges in general where firearms, ammunition, firearm accessories, safety products and personal defense items can be sold to law enforcement and security personnel and to the general public who typically use the Shooting Center in accordance with federal, state and local requirements and regulations and at which firearms safety can be demonstrated.

Body

The organization has an active, eleven member Board of Directors that meets regularly throughout the year to discuss, brainstorm and evaluate the mission accomplishments of the organization. The organization also has an active Advisory Board comprised of professionals from outside of the organization that provides input to the Board of Directors. There is an annual board meeting that summarizes the accomplishments and concerns of the organization from the previous year.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - First Accomplishment

EDUCATION, RECOGNITION, SUPPORT AND PUBLIC AWARENESS:

EDUCATION: Among the many educational benefits, we encourage every law-abiding individual to support their local police. We accomplish this with many publications and programs that are educational in nature. In most cases, these books are provided without charge to the police agencies or at cost. We produce other educational materials such as posters and printed guidelines to promote Police Week, and encourage citizen support of police in their own community.

Chief of Police Magazine: NACOP publishes a magazine on a regular basis to members. It provides information on changes in the law and of ideas of successful anti-crime programs, administrative concerns and training of staff and officers to chiefs of police, county sheriffs, and state and federal agencies who employ hundreds of thousands of sworn law enforcement officers in the United States.

Survey: On an annual basis, we conduct a survey of command officers regarding issues and questions of ethics that they in turn can use as a guideline for training and actions. The survey also provides the media, the legislature and the community with the views of the police departments on subjects such as traffic standards, firearms, funding, training, use of force, sharing crime facts, and problems dealing with the use of narcotics, school violence, and issues of policing in the years ahead. We can respond to major issues, via the results of the Survey, which is now in its 27th year of publication.

Police Ethics: Part of the educational program of the National Association of Chiefs of Police is to reach out to citizens in the community to help set standards for police leadership and police ethics. We encourage citizens to understand that a real professional must have ethics and standards to keep the community alert to trends in crime and the selection of men and women who uphold the law.

Police Museum: The 30,000 square foot Police Museum houses many exciting exhibits and displays that provide visitors with an abundance of hands-on educational opportunities. Visitors learn about police equipment from yesterday, today and tomorrow, and about such topics as terrorism, street and prison weapons, and capital punishment through a close-up view of thousands of artifacts assembled from all over the world over the past 54 years. A simulated crime scene together with police investigation and forensic tools provide an opportunity for visitors to gain a better understanding of crime scene investigation work. An interactive counterfeit money display allows visitors to check the authenticity of their currency using several techniques available to law enforcement agencies. In addition to many other visitors, thousands of police officers and survivors of police officers killed in the line of duty visit the Museum every year to see the Memorial where more than 8,500 names of slain police officers from the past 54 years are engraved.

Training Facility: Our training rooms have been used recently by many governmental agencies, local municipalities and educational institutions for training and educational sessions. These groups include the U.S. Department of Commerce, 18th Judicial Circuit Court, Florida Department of Law Enforcement, Florida Department of Transportation, Brevard County Sheriff's Office, Titusville Police Department, Kennedy Space Center Security, Brevard County Correctional Institute, Brevard Community College Police Academy, Florida Institute of Technology, Brevard County, the City of Titusville, Police Benevolent Association, and the Space Coast League of Cities. Numerous schools make field trips that start in the training room and then continue to the Museum and Memorial. Thousands of school children have been part of NACOP's program. Every year during the week of May 15th, we hold services where the families of slain officers are invited, as are members of the Board of Directors. We also support and work with our local Police Athletic Leagues and Police Explorers groups.

Shooting Center: Our 24-lane indoor gun range known as the Shooting Center is open to law enforcement, corrections, security, military personnel and the general public. The range is used for teaching firearms safety, self-defense, training, competitions and practice. More than 24,000 people annually shoot in the range. Many of these are first time firearms users who come away with a keen appreciation for the skills and competencies required of law enforcement officers in the performance of their duties and with a real life, first-hand education on firearms safety. The Shooting Center has hosted training conducted by Kennedy Space Center Security, the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives, the State Attorney's Office, Department of Homeland Security, the US Department of Labor, the National Park Service, Melbourne Police Department, the Titusville Police Department, and has hosted events in conjunction with the Civilian Marksmanship Program, NJROTC, Keiser University, Boy Scouts of America and Florida Sport Shooting Association. Many private security firms and training organizations use the Shooting Center for firearms and self-defense training and for armed security officer qualifying.

Pro Shop: Our Pro Shop is an integral part of the Shooting Center operation as it provides a place where law enforcement and security personnel and the general public who typically use the Shooting Center can purchase firearms with confidence and assurance that the process is performed professionally and in compliance with federal, state and local regulations. Firearm accessories, ammunition, safety products and personal defense items can also be purchased.

RECOGNITION:

National Awards Program: This program is in its 54th year. Various citations, medals and uniform bars are available to all U.S. law enforcement agencies for the purpose of recognizing acts of service and valor. This simple but effective method of recognition is very important for officer morale. The medals and uniform bars are similar to those worn by members of the armed forces and can be worn on a police uniform. The second highest award a law enforcement officer can receive is the Silver Star of Bravery. Citizens who come to the aid of local law enforcement officers and/or fellow citizens are also eligible for recognition through the National Award Program.

Medal of Honor: The highest award, the Posthumous Medal of Honor, is issued when an officer has died in the line of duty. The award is sent to the officer's department and then presented to the officer's family. The officer's name, rank and department affiliation is then added to the memorial walls located inside the Police Museum.

Law Enforcement Officer of the Year: One officer is selected each year to receive this award. The award is designed to recognize the bravery and dedication of one outstanding law enforcement officer each year.

SUPPORT: One of the goals of the National Association of Chiefs of Police is to support the law enforcement community, both to the individual officers and to the agencies themselves. The organization seeks to find areas where normal funding and support is not currently available and make that service or funding available.

Disabled Police Officer Program: Each day almost 190 law enforcement officers are injured in the line of duty. Many of these officers will be permanently disabled and unable to return to work. The National Association of Chiefs of Police studies the type of injuries law enforcement officers receive. Because each state has differing guidelines concerning disabled officers, there are no consistent standards for a disabled or paralyzed officer to follow. We have a volunteer chairman, who is a permanently disabled officer, who can assist other injured officers and advise them on options for rehabilitation. We provide grants to disabled officers to help with needs such as medical reimbursements or educational scholarships. The children of disabled officers are also provided educational scholarships, Christmas and Birthday gifts and Summer Camp grants. Every officer who becomes permanently disabled as a result of a line of duty injury is eligible to enroll in our Disabled Police Officers Fund. They are provided a free lifetime membership as well as a citation and medal for Line of Duty Injury. We also encourage disabled officers to attend our annual meetings.

K-9 Matching Grant Program: The National Association of Chiefs of Police has worked with 95 police departments in 31 states throughout the U.S. to help raise funds for their canine programs. Over $910,000 has been awarded to underfunded police departments since the program began in 2001.

PUBLIC AWARENESS: The National Association of Chiefs of Police strives to make the public aware of the nature and importance of law enforcement, the law enforcement profession and the dangers that accompany it.

Press Releases: When a recipient of our National Awards Program is presented their award, local newspapers often publish the facts surrounding the actios which led to the recipient's recognition. Information on departments who have received assistance from the K9 Matching Grant program is also provided to local media.

Direct mail: Information on current relevant law enforcement related issues are sent to individuals who have expressed interest in the organization's purpose. Throughout the year, personal safety and identity theft information is provided to citizens throughout the United States.

Public Service Announcements: From time to time the National Association of Chiefs of Police produces public service announcements on law enforcement topics relevant to the public.
