This year also noted the transition of river network's program work toward a streamlined set of strategies that build from our strengths and work to date:

- Strong Champions (strengthen coalitions, organizations and leaders): Ensure that new and existing leaders, organizations and coalitions are strong, effective, sustainable, results-oriented, and equipped to make the greatest impact on our rivers and other waters in a rapidly changing world.

- Clean Water (promote clean water solutions and innovations): Improve local caretaker understanding of the causes of water quality decline, advance policies and restoration practices that can turn this situation around and sustain improvement over the long term, and foster opportunities for expanded impact through collaboration.

- Ample Water (advance water supply security and sustainability): Grow local caretaker familiarity with the challenges and opportunities associated with securing an ample supply of water for healthy rivers and communities; craft solutions that both satisfy human needs and sustain ecosystem functionality; and foster expanded impact through collaboration.

The three strategies above - Strong Champions, Clean Water, and Ample Water - will inform River Network's work moving forward. From the themes of River Rally, the structure and content of our newsletter, the direct assistance we provide, the awards program we sponsor, and the design and function of our website and online forums, these three topics will have a recurring and integrated presence. This transition began during 2014 and will continue into 2015 and beyond.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11:

Explanation: The Form 990 is prepared by the CPA firm that audits River Network's financial statements, and the draft form is then reviewed by management. The complete final draft was e-mailed to all Board members in PDF with a short introduction providing background, pointing out portions most likely of interest to the public, and inviting comments or questions. Prior to filing, the complete form was reviewed at a Board Finance Committee meeting to which all board members were specifically invited.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c:

Explanation: The conflict of interest policy is reviewed on an annual basis with board members. In addition, each board meeting begins with directors declaring any conflict or even potential conflict (such as mutual work between their "home" organization and River Network). Any conflict is disclosed to the full Board, and the member recuses themselves from voting
